

2. The terms of these exchanges will be agreed upon directly by the interested Soviet and Canadian organizations;

-- the exchange of book-exhibitions on mutually acceptable financial terms, and the participation of both countries in international book exhibitions taking place in the USSR and Canada.

3. The sides will facilitate the further development of cooperation between copyright organizations and publishing houses of both countries in order to provide mutual protection of the rights of authors and a wider familiarization with works of Soviet and Canadian authors in science, literature and the arts in the USSR and Canada respectively.

4. The sides will promote the further development of exchanges and cooperation between the main archives department of the USSR Council of Ministers and the State Archives of Canada in accordance with the agreed upon basic directions of cooperation.

5. The sides will promote exchanges of writers and poets on the basis of programmes which will be agreed upon directly by the Union of Writers of the USSR, the Union of Writers of Canada and the National Union of Writers of Quebec.