Protocol of Signature United States of America to the Protocol of Signature (1997) Protocol of Signature of the Statute of the Permanent Court of International Justice.*

Geneva, September 14, 1929

THE States signatories of the Protocol of Signature of the Statute of the Permanent Court of International Justice, dated December 16, 1920, and United States of America, through the production of Signature of the Statute of the Permanent Court of International Justice, dated December 16, 1920, and the United States of America, through the production of Signature of the Statute United States of America, through the undersigned duly authorized represents tives, have mutually agreed upon the following provisions regarding the adherence of the United States of America to the said Protocol subject to five reservations formulated by the United States of America to the said Protocol subject to be said Protoco five reservations formulated by the United States in the resolution adopted by the Senate on January 27, 1926.

au

ARTICLE 1

The States signatories of the said Protocol accept the special conditions to its attached by the United States in the five reservations mentioned above to the adherence to the said Protocol upon the transfer and protocol accept the special conditions. adherence to the said Protocol upon the terms and conditions set out in the following Articles following Articles.

ARTICLE 2

The United States shall be admitted to participate, through representatives designated for the purpose and upon an equality with the signatory Members of the League of Nations representations and upon an equality with the signatory mobile. Members of the League of Nations represented in the Council or in the Assembly in any and all proceedings of sith all proceedings of sith all proceedings of sith all proceedings of sith all proceedi in any and all proceedings of either the Council or the Assembly for the election of judges or deputy-judges of the Pormanut C. of judges or deputy-judges of the Permanent Court of International Justice provided for in the Statute of the Court of International Justice provided for in the Statute of the Court. The vote of the United States shall be counted in determining the absolute majority. be counted in determining the absolute majority of votes required by the Statute.

No amendment of the Statute of the Court may be made without the consent ll the Contracting States of all the Contracting States.

ARTICLE 4

The Court shall render advisory opinions in public session after notice and preductive for hearing substantially as president public session after notice and preductive session after notice session after not opportunity for hearing substantially as provided in the now existing Articles 73 and 74 of the Rules of Court

ARTICLE 5

With a view to ensuring that the Court shall not, without the consent of United States, entertain any request for any the United States, entertain any request for an advisory opinion touching the dispute or question in which the United States. dispute or question in which the United States has or claims an interest, Secretary-General of the League of Nations shall, through any channel designated for that purposes by the United States has or claims an interest, and the state of the League of Nations shall, through any channel designated for that purposes by the United States has or claims an interest, and the state of t for that purpose by the United States, inform the United States of any proposition before the Council or the Assembly of the I before the Council or the Assembly of the League for obtaining an advisor opinion from the Court, and thereupon if opinion from the Court, and thereupon, if desired, an exchange of views as whether an interest of the United States is a contract of the United States in the contract of the United States is a contract. whether an interest of the United States is affected shall proceed with all convenient speed between the Council or Association and thereupon, if desired, an exchange of views to venient speed between the Council or Association and the council or A venient speed between the Council or Assembly of the League and the United States.

^{*} Not in force. (See Article 7)