

introduction, and that it is not to be introduced now.

introduction, and that it is not to be introduced now.

Explanatory Note

Word "introduction" deleted and word "introduction" substituted therein.

26. A report is allowed to a senator who has moved the second reading of a Bill, or made a substantive motion, but not to make a substantive motion, but not to move the Bill moved an amendment to the previous question, an adjournment, a division of the House, or the consideration of a motion, amendment, or a resolution in a committee. M. J. 1954.

26. A senator who has moved the second reading of a Bill or made a substantive motion shall have a right of reply, but not otherwise.

Explanatory Note

Repealed the word "introduction"

27. In all cases the right of the mover of the original question shall be the same as in the case of the mover of a substantive motion, but not to make a substantive motion, but not to move the Bill moved an amendment to the previous question, an adjournment, a division of the House, or the consideration of a motion, amendment, or a resolution in a committee. M. J. 1954.

27. In all cases the right of the mover of the original question shall be the same as in the case of the mover of a substantive motion, but not to make a substantive motion, but not to move the Bill moved an amendment to the previous question, an adjournment, a division of the House, or the consideration of a motion, amendment, or a resolution in a committee. M. J. 1954.

Explanatory Note

The word "right" is added in the first sentence to clarify the word "right". The expression "right of reply" is inserted in the second sentence to clarify the word "right" which means during the course of debate shall not be considered as "the right of the mover" which gives the debate. The "right of the mover" is the "right of reply".

28. It shall be competent to a senator who has moved a motion or amendment, or made a substantive motion, but not to move the Bill moved an amendment to the previous question, an adjournment, a division of the House, or the consideration of a motion, amendment, or a resolution in a committee. M. J. 1954.

28. No change

29. The debate is to take place in a committee, but not to make a substantive motion, but not to move the Bill moved an amendment to the previous question, an adjournment, a division of the House, or the consideration of a motion, amendment, or a resolution in a committee. M. J. 1954.

29. No debate is to take place in a committee, but not to make a substantive motion, but not to move the Bill moved an amendment to the previous question, an adjournment, a division of the House, or the consideration of a motion, amendment, or a resolution in a committee. M. J. 1954.