REPORT.

Report of the Royal Commission on Railways.—(Mr. Pope.)

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Sir RICHARD CARTWRIGHT. I desire to ask the Minister of Agriculture, if the report of his department has been brought down, or when he expects to bring it down.

Mr. CARLING. The report of the department of Agriculture is made up to the end of the year, and it will be laid on the Table in about two weeks.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE.

Sir RICHARD CARTWRIGHT. I would like to make a suggestion to the First Minister. He may have observed that I have given notice of a motion to discuss the trade relations between this country and the United States. Now, it has been represented to me by several members, including some members on the other side of the House, that, in dealing with a motion of this kind, it would be convenient that we should name some definite day on which it might be taken up, and I think it would also be convenient and suit the convenience of the hon. gentlemen, as well as ours, that when once begun the discussion should proceed with and be disposed of de die in diem. It is obvious that it cannot be disposed of in a single evening, in all probability, and it will be very inconvenient, as the hon. gentleman is
