Mr. Macdonnell: There is one item I should like to raise in that connection. I notice that you are up $50,000 on language texts for citizenship classes.

Mr. Harris: Has my hon. friend any objection to that or is he helping me out?

Mr. Macdonnell: I am not quite sure. I just want to know more about it. It seems a rather steep rise. Are there so many more classes requiring language texts that it is 50 per cent greater?

Mr. Harris: I could give a list of the books that are being published this year under this particular item. There are 16 of them, and they total $140,430. If my hon. friend wants to have them put on the record, I will do so.

The Chairman: Is it agreed?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. Harris: The list is as follows:
