

tary etiquette. I do not know whether I ought to say anything further now with respect to the matter. But I hope we all understand that, though the government is anxious to get this legislation through, there are very strong feelings about the bill, not just on this side of the House but on both sides.

If there had been an understanding between House leaders such as the one to which the parliamentary secretary has referred, and if I had had knowledge of such an understanding, I would have indicated as much to the hon. gentleman when he was over here to see me.

Some hon. Members: Oh!

Mr. Baker (Grenville-Carleton): I have to say, in response to his intervention, that I do not believe it would be appropriate for me to go further in the circumstances.

Mr. Guay (St. Boniface): Five o'clock!

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Turner): Order. Pursuant to special order passed on Monday, February 16, this House stands adjourned until 2 p.m. on Monday, February 23.

At 5 p.m. the House adjourned, pursuant to Special Order.
