

TINENT.

men, women, and
pedition, attended
ed the street and Agency, began to

, who had borne
ourney, who had epths of the wilds
ge in their own
sbands to continue
were all rewarded.
d accompanied us
d who, by their
n soothed me in me to forget my
re not forgotten.
ed into the world
s of the cataract
open with wonder,
athering of happy
a—omitted in this

d to hearing the lead. Poor faithful ty unexpected, and
d followed me to
had often asserted nature. They had
oes, but they ex-
g with the varied
apparently endless

With each name of
ed. The poignant
named after each
days never to be

- | | | |
|---|------------------------|----------------------|
| 1. Wife of Murch. | 7. Wife of Manwa Sera. | 10. Wife of Musenti. |
| 2. " Robert. | 8. " Chowpereli. | 11. " Chiwonda. |
| 3. " Mana Loko. | 9. " Mutini Pembe. | 12. " Mufta. |
| 4. Half-caste of Gambaragara, whom Wadi Rehani married. | | |
| 5. Zaidi's wife. | | |
| 6. Wife of Wadi Paraka. | | |