

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

Parentage and birth—Boyhood—Enters the King's Regiment—Trait of determination of character—Becomes Lieutenant-Colonel of the 49th—Campaign in Holland, in 1799—A young Irish Sergeant—Russian troops in Guernsey—Battle of Copenhagen, in 1801—Notice of John Savery Brock, Esq. 1

CHAPTER II.

Proceeds to Canada with the 49th—Deserters—Suppresses a mutiny at Fort George—Military Execution—Returns to Europe, and recommends the formation of a Veteran Battalion for Upper Canada—Re-embarks for Canada 24

CHAPTER III.

Succeeds Colonel Bowes in command of the troops in Canada—Stringent Instructions to the Deputy Commissary-General—Marine Department—Bishop M'Donell—Jesuits' Harraeks—French Secret Envoy to the Canadians—Relief to a Widow and her Children—General Orders—Letters to Lieut.-Colonel Gordon, Right Hon. W. Windham, Colonel Glasgow, Mr. President Dunn, Lieut.-Governor Gore, the Adjutant-General, Major Mackenzie, and Lord Castlereagh—Arrival of Sir James Craig 38

CHAPTER IV.

Stationed at Montreal—North-West Company—Disaffection of French Canadians, and Causes of their Discontent—P. Carey Tupper, Esq.—General Sir James Kempt—Society in Guernsey—Post Office in Canada—Baroness de Rottenburg—Lieut.-Colonel Murray—Letters from Lieut.-Colonel Thornton, Colonel Baynes, Lieut.-Governor Gore, Colonel Kempt, and Colonel Vesey—Letters to his Brothers, to Mrs. W. Brock, to his brother Irving, Lieut.-Governor Gore, Sir James Craig, and Major Taylor—Duke of Kent—Queen Victoria. 68

CHAPTER V.

Is made a Major-General—Sir James Craig returns to England, his character and administration—Sir Gordon Drummond—Duke of Manchester—Arrival of Sir George Prevost, services, military repu-