

on the day of Pentecost, they received, according to the promise of Jesus, the gift of the Holy Spirit, by which Jesus came to them in power to accomplish the work which he had given them to do.