NATIONAL ECONOMY: AN OUTLINE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION. By HENRY HIGGS, C.B. Extra Crown 8vo.

FINANCIAL CHAPTERS OF THE WAR. By ALEXANDER DANA NOYES. Crown 8vo. 5s. net.

Seventh Edition. Just Published.

PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS. An Introductory Volume.
By ALFRED MARSHALL. Seventh Edition. With a New Preface. 8vo. 12s 6d. net.

SECOND THOUGHTS OF AN ECONOMIST. By the late WILLIAM SMART, D.Phil., LL.D. With a Biographical Sketch by THOMAS JONES, M.A. Extra Crown 8vo. 5s. net.

The Journal of the Royal Statistical Society.—"The numerous admirers of the Glasgow Professor, whose death a little more than a year ago was felt as a personal bereavement by many economists, will, we are sure, be glad to possess this memorial of his attractive character and happy, honourable career. An excellent photograph forms a suitable frontispiece, and it is followed by Mr. Jones' skilful biographical sketch."

ECONOMICS. An Introduction for the General Reader. By HENRY CLAY, M.A. Crown 8vo. 3s. 6d. net.

The Athenæum.—"Of quite unusual interest and value. . . . We welcome the book as a departure from the old academic treatise. Its concluding chapters bring out clearly to the thoughtful reader the two principles which we have endeavoured to express in this article—that wealth is merely a means to welfare, and that the labourer in industry has value as a human personality."

COMPETITION: A Study in Human Motive. By H. G. WOOD, Warden of Woodbrooke Settlement, J. ST. G. HEATH, Warden of Toynbee Hall, The Rev. M. SPENCER, Secretary of the Free Church Fellowship, and the Rev. WILLIAM TEMPLE. Crown 8vo.
