CHICAGO WANTS THE '16 OLYMPIC GAMES

Determined Effort To Be Made and New Stadium Is Promised—The Outlook.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Everett C. Brown, former president of the National Amateur Athletic Union and leader in athletics at the C. A. A., is going to make a determined effort to bring the Olympic games of 1916 to Chicago. Mr. Brown, now chief executive of the Western A. A. U., said: "Chicago should have the Olympic contests in 1916, and I shall do all in my power to bring them here. The new stadium to be built on the lake front, where track and field games may be held; and the big lagoon for swimming and rowing, will make Chicago an ideal place for the games." The American committee men who will go to the Olympiad at Stockholm next year will carry invitations from Chicago and the United States to bring the historic event to this city. The only Olympiad held in the United States was at St. Louis in 1904. Europe had the last one, in London in 1908, and will have the next one at Stockholm. So Americans think it is time to bring the games to this country once more. It would be an excellent thing for American athletes if the Olympic games could be brought to Chicago. "I am strongly in favor of the plan," said Coach A. A. Stagg of the University of Chicago, one of the Olympic officials. "The new stadium should make an ideal scene for the great meet, and Chicago certainly could furnish all the accommodations necessary in every direction. The Chicago plan in general is to be regarded as an advance for athletics." "America should have the Olympiad next time," said former President George K. Herman of the Western A. A. U. "I agree with Mr. Brown, and as American committee men at Stockholm, will do my best to bring this about. A large percentage of the winning athletes come from this country, and we are entitled to the next meet."

Cleveland Club Training Dates

CLEVELAND, Dec. 22.—The Cleveland Club announces its training trip dates. The batteries will leave Cleveland March 2, arriving at Mobile the following night, and starting to work March 4. The remainder of the team will leave a week later and remain at Mobile until the night of March 17, when the entire squad will move on to New Orleans, staying there until April 6. At least four Saturday and Sunday games will be played at New Orleans, while other week-day contests will be arranged upon the arrival of the Naps in that city. Leaving New Orleans, the club will split up into two sections, the same as for the last two years. The first squad will visit Memphis, Indianapolis and Columbus, while the other will stop off at Vicksburg, Birmingham, Chattanooga, Dayton and Springfield. In addition, each team will play two games at Mobile, two during the stay there and two later on, the second team making a trip specially from New Orleans.

There is a chance that the American League season will start on April 1. In case it does, Barnard's schedule will have to be curtailed, and the Columbus and Springfield dates cut. Barnard will be started until April 15 or 16, which will give the two squads time to play an exhibition game here on Sunday, April 14. The schedule is as follows: The entire squad at Mobile from March 9 to 15 inclusive.
