John Laidlaw, One of Toronto's Most Respected Citizens, Died Suddenly Yesterday Afternoon.

HAD LIVED EIGHTY-ONE YEARS.

Born in Scotland, But Came Early to Canada and Led an Active Life.

John Laidlaw, aged 81 years, died very suddenly Sunday afternoon at his late residence, 23 Park-road. He was one of the best known and most public spirited men of his time in Toronto.

On Saturday night he was particularly bright and cheerful, and his son, F. J. Laidlaw, remarked this manner when he called and showed his father two birds that had been recently shot. Sunday morning the deceased was feeling well and showed no signs that his sudden demise was evident.

He had the honor of being on the staff of the Canadian contingent to the Philadelphia Centennial.

In politics he was a generous-minded Conservative, and in religion a member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

It is a coincidence that he was the same age as the Queen, of which fact the deceased was ever proud.

He leaves, besides a widow, three cons and two daughters to mourn his loss. The sons are: John B. Laidlaw, Canadian manager of the Norwich Union Fire Insurance Company of Toronto; W. H. Laidlaw, as sisiant secretary of the Northern Pacific at St. Paul; and F. J. Laidlaw of the Norwich Union. His daughters are Mrs. J. F. Pringle and one unmarried daughter, both residing in the city.

When deceased first came to this city it was called Muddy York, and he was among the first settlers. He resided for several years on Church-street, opposite where the Metropolitan Church now stands.

The funeral will take place to-morrow at 3 p.m. to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. no signs that his sudden demise was evident. But an acute attack of heart failure came upon him early in the afternoon and he passed away before aid could be given

The deceased was born in Douglas, Lanarkshire, Scotland, March 31, 1819, and came to Toronto when 17 years of age. He received his education in the Old Country, and on arriving in this city took up business. He started in the dry goods trade at the corner of King and Churchsireets, where his business rapidly increased. Some years later Mr. James Scott was taken in as partner, and the business was continued under the name of Scott & Laidlaw until 20 years ago, when deceased as taken in as partner, and the business was continued under the name of Scott & Laidlaw until 20 years ago, when deceased feited.
