

His regular attendance at both week-day and Sabbath services was an example to all; while his large hearted liberality to every good object, and more especially in connection with this Congregation, will long be remembered. To all the bereaved and afflicted amongst us we would tender hearty sympathy, while praying that the lessons of God's providence may be learned by us all.

The whole respectfully submitted.

H. CAMERON,

Clerk Deacons' Court.

