MORGAN WOULD TAKE ON ZOCCANO AGAIN

Promises Result of Next Encounter Will Be Reverse of Last.

Not content with letting well enough done, Eddie Morgan, the Rhode Island featherweight pugilist, wants to take on Tony Zoccano, local mitt artist, in a "fight to the finish," some time before the winter sets in. Morgan got the short end of a decision with Zoccano two years ago, when the scrappers met in this city. Eddie claimed he could repay Tony with a licking this year, and a bout was held at the Patricia Theatre some weeks ago. The American slugger was knocked out in this eighth round after a slugfest that delighted local fight fans. Morgan is not discouraged, however, and declares he can "wipe the floor" with Zoccano any time he feels like it. He confesses that he did not feel much like it the last time the two men met—but, then, that was the last time, and Morgan's motto is, "Try, try, try again."

Eddie's alibi for his recent defeat is that the crowd was so small as to be bett weeth. featherweight pugilist, wants to take Eddie's alibi for his recent deteat is that the crowd was so small as to be not worth fighting for. Morgan says he cannot get in his "punch" before a crowd numbering less than 400. This explanation sounds plaus ble, as there were only 394 fight fans at the Patricia on the occasion of the Morgan-Zoccano encounter.

For Biliousness

Biliousness is a common form of indigestion. It is brought on by food-waste which the stomach, intestines and bowels fail to expel. If you will take a few doses of Beecham's Fils, when bilious, you will soon rid yourself of the impurities, relieve sick headache, stimulate the liver and bile and tone the stomach. Healthy conditions are quickly re-established by using Queen's County Jockey Club Meeting Opens at Aqueduct.

New York, Sept. 17.—There was a H. bumper crowd at Aqueduct yesterday for the opening of the two weeks' meeting of the Queen's County Jockey Club, and the racing was fully up to opportunity now of vindicating his monaker. He has been offered a job in a steel mill.

Helnie Wagner and Otto Knabe had a fist fight at Comiskey Park recently. Funny how these baliplayers like to fight anywhere but in the right place.

Square Dealer won the big steeple-chase at Belmont Park, and yet there are some people who will probably claim that the race was a frame-up.

"Is it bad to swear on Sunday?" asks a reader. The Government evidently believes not. It allows golf to be played on the Sabbath, but tennis games are against the law.

"I am bringing home the bacon," he telegraphed her, and three days after winning his crown he stepped off the train at Chicago, his face beaming when he saw his mammy elbowing her way through the crowds that had gathered to welcome the champion home. Johnson immediately consulted a real estate specialist, with the result mansion were begun. Jack spared no expense in furnishing the home. He covered the floors with plush carpets and festooned the walls with tapestries and festooned the walls with tapestries and festooned the walls with tapestries and festooned the perations, going about his work with great joy. After the house had been completely furnished with every luxury known to modern conception, he engaged a retinue of servants, including a negro woman to act as companion to his mother. When no more remained to be done, one bright autumn morning Jack asked his mammy to accompany him down-town "to do some shopping." Little did the old mammy dream of what was to follow. She just shuffled along beside her massive son, protesting that she should have remained at home to get the dinner. Jack talked but little along the first protest. The primary beading a new trial.
