SOLID HITTING BY BIRDS AT ISLAND

Bunched Hits Off Manning and Beat the Leafs Handily.

Baltimore opened a four-game series at the Island Stadium yesterday and easily won the first verdict, 6 to 2. Dunn's men hit the ball hard and often and there was no doubt about who should have won. Manning retired after he had yielded 9 hits and 4 runs in six innings. McTigue gave 2 runs and a like number of hits in the other three innings.

On the other hand the Leafs were not overburdened with luck when it came to hitting. Several hard clouts were produced, but they were right at the Baltimore fielders. Sherman also had a nice spitter working, and the locals had a habit of popping up in a pinch.

Manning found the sledding tough right from the drop of the hat. Twombly found the Toronto pitching much to his liking and piled up a double and two singles, driving in five of the enemy's six runs. Manning got thru the first inning when it looked dangerous. Crane struck out, but Kopf singled. Manning picked him off first and then hit Miller, who promptly stole second. Twombly walked and pulled off a double steal with Miller. Lamar rolled out to end it.

The Leafs had a rosy chance in the first inning, but failed. Truesdale flew out to deep centre, but Smith tripled to deep left. Murray's effort was a puny grounder to the pitcher. Graham lined into the right fielder's hands.

We showed in front in the second. Thompson tripled and Blackburne raised a sacrifice that let him score. The Birds got to Manning in the third and went ahead and stayed there. Sherman walked and Crane singled. Kopf sacrificed, and then Miller rolled to third. Blackburne unraveled the ball up smartly and pegged to the plate, Sherman turned back to third, and in the meantime Crane moved up to third. McKee chased Sherman back right to the bag and then heaved the ball. Trout picked it up behind the third bag and threw to Smith. Smith tagged Crane and also touched Sherman, but the umpire ruled that Crane was the man out. Twombly came along with a double that scored two.

Truesdale booted Sherman's roller in the fifth and before we could retire the visitors they added two to their total. Crane sacrificed, and Kopf sent Sherman home with a single. Miller rolled out, but Twombly scored Kopf with a single.

After the first two men had singled in the seventh Manning was benched, and McTigue sent to the mound. The next batter sacrificed, and Twombly again got in some of his deadly work. He sniped a single into Trout's trench and two more of the enemy charged the home fort. We held the line for the rest of the day and the enemy were unable to attack again.

Our second and last counter was saved for the eighth session. Murray walked, and Graham rolled towards third. Ritter threw too late to second to head off Murray, and all hands were safe. Thompson and Blackburne raised flies, but Trout hit safely to score the run.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Bill Carrigan, leader of the world's champion Red Sox, is seriously thinking of converting Babe Ruth, his young lefthander, into an outfielder. Ruth is one of the hardest hitters in the American League, and holds the honor of being the only player ever to drive the ball over the right-field fence at Sportsman's Park in St. Louis. Carrigan's team is not hitting well, and this is one of the reasons why the world's champions are not out in front in the American League race. Walker has been hitting the ball hard, but both Duffy Lewis, hero of the last world's series, and Harry Hooper have been in a batting slump for some time. It is possible that Carrigan may play Ruth in the outfield and pitch him every four or five days.

BISONS GAIN ON LEAGUE LEADERS

At Buffalo (International)—Buffalo won a double-header from Newark, 13 to 3 and 4 to 1. Buffalo won the first game by slugging Schacht's delivery all over the field. The second game was more even, but Buffalo managed to bunch their hits, while Newark could do very little with Gaw. Scores:

First game—									R.	H.	E.
Newark	0	0	2	0	0	0	1	0	0—	3	10
Buffalo	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	2	*—	4	8

Buffalo	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	2	*—	4	8	1

Batteries—Wilkinson and Egan; Gaw and Onslow.

At Montreal—Montreal hit Reynolds and Pittings hard, while Cadore settled down after the fourth innings, and, holding Richmond safe for the balance of the game, brought Montreal home a victor, 8 to 5. Score:

										R.	H.	E.
Montreal	0	3	0	0	0	0	3	2	*—	8	12	2

Batteries—Reynolds, Pittings and Mahaffey; Cadore and Madden.

At Rochester—Rochester divided honors with Providence, Rochester winning the first game of the double-header, 7 to 4, and Providence administering a shutout, 4 to 0, in the second. Schultz was hit hard in the second innings of the opening game, and, with the errors behind him, yielded five runs, which was enough to win. Billiard was in excellent form in the second game, and allowed but six scattered hits. Scores:

Charley Mitchell Fought With Spikes in His Shoes

Charley Mitchell was a great admirer of John L. Sullivan. He told Frank Moran in the dressing-room before the fight with Bombardier Wells that our lawn was a considerable boy with his dukes.

"He was a tremendous hitter when he hit you," said Mitchell. "I knew all about his hitting, but I had sense enough to keep away from his right paw. He could cave your chest in with one of his blows if you were fool enough to be prowling around with your chest hanging out on the line. Another thing, I wore long spikes, an inch long, in my fighting shoes, a thing that Sullivan neglected. He floundered around in the mud, for you remember we fought in the open country during a drizzle.

"Every time he tried to hit me he would slip and I'd clinch. As soon as I got my arms around him I'd start to climb him to his very hips, the long spikes in my shoes cutting him to the bone. If there is any one who thinks that John L. Sullivan wasn't game I'd like to meet him and tell him a thing or two. He might have fared far better if he hadn't been out-generaled in the matter of those spikes. It was a camp secret and his men should have known all about it. It was one we put over on the blooming Yankees, that's all."

To Make Athletes Out of Chinese

LIBERTY, Mo., July 10.—Ray H. Ewing, a member of the 1916 graduating class at William Jewell College, Liberty, has received the appointment of athletic coach of Wayland Academy, Hong Chow, China, and will sail for the Orient on July 26. Ewing was a star in several branches of sport at the Liberty college and is well fitted for the duties he is to assume. Roger Arnold of the 1913 class also will be sent to China this year as a missionary.

O. B. A. TOURNEY AT NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE

Messrs. John and Tom Rennie Are Absentees—Preliminary Scores.

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, Ont., July 10.—The twenty-eighth tournament of the Ontario Bowling Association was opened here this afternoon, with 64 entries, as compared to 86 last year, in the trophy competition. Nearly half of this number were from Toronto, and the Queen City bowlers did fair to make a creditable showing for the trophy honors.

The decrease in the entry for the trophy is attributed to the disturbed conditions generally, altho the entry is considered a very representative one. A few old-timers who have been away from the green for some years again donned the shoes, and their shot was not found to be wanting. G. W. Wood of Canadas made his first appearance in some years. The veterans, Tom and John Rennie, of the Granite Club, who have been so prominent at former O.B.A.'s, did not make entry, and their absence was keenly felt. Business matters caused their withdrawal this year.

Perfect weather conditions prevailed, and the green was pronounced to be in superb condition, in spite of its slight use. In accord with the new dead-line regulation, the east end of the lawn has been adjusted with the sand-pit, the old chalk line being done away with. President H. McD. Hay of R.C.Y.C. declared the tournament open at two o'clock.
