WHY is a little girl learning the alphabet like a postage stamp? Because she gets stuck on the letters.

WHY is the letter "X" like a person in doubt?—Because it is always in perplexity.

WHAT is the right kind of timber for castles in the air? Sun-beams, moon-beams and star-beams.

How are young ladies like arrows? One of them gave the answer because they are sharp; another, because they pierce the heart. The potential reason is because they are all in a quiver when the beaux come to them.

"WHAT is laughter?" asks a philosopher. It is the sound we hear when our hat blows off.

WHY are New York and Brooklyn stunted in growth? Because they are a-bridged—vide the Brooklyn bridge.

WHY is a gun like a ship? Because both are loaded and discharged.

WASTE no time in cherishing vain dreams, indulging idle speculations, or giving way to depressing emotions, but resolutely throw them off, and engage in whatever actual work appears most pressing and important.
