SUIT FOR DAMAGES

The case of Frank A. Priest vs. Herbert W. Parlee was continued in the circuit court this morning before Chief Justice Landry. This is an action to recover damages for injuries received by the plaintiff on December 19 by being thrown from a cargo sling while assisting in loading one of the Head Line boats at West St. John. His right arm was broken and he was otherwise bruised. He is claiming $3,500 damages and is also claiming alternatively under the Workmen's Compensation Act. The plaintiff and Osborne Langley were examined this morning. E. P. Raymond is appearing for the plaintiff and Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., and McLean & Sinclair for the defendant.

FEAST OF PASSOVER ENDS

The celebration of the Jewish feast of the Passover came to a conclusion at sunset last night, but the last ritual service was held in the synagogue yesterday morning. Rev. B. L. Amdur officiated at the service in the Hasen street synagogue.

The feast was in commemoration of the departure of the Israelites from Egypt, and the nature of the observance is very strict. On the first two days and the last two days work is strictly prohibited, so that yesterday and Monday were religious holidays with the Jews. Yesterday was the most solemn day of the feast, and the people remained about the synagogue during the entire day.

HOSIERY

Nothing is more disappointing than a poor quality of Hosiery, and there are few things in which it is so difficult for anyone but an expert to distinguish the worthy from the unworthy.

We protect the patrons of our hosiery department from dissatisfaction by handling only qualities that we know to be trustworthy. We buy from only reliable makers, and subject every purchase to a minute examination, rejecting every pair of stockings that we do not come up to the high standard we set for ourselves.

We have stockings for as little as 25c, and for as much as $1.50. Every pair from the lowest to the highest price is a thoroughly good quality, which is certain to prove eminently satisfactory.

You'll find a complete stock of light and medium weights here, in all sizes.

The Man In The Street

Taken 'em off yet?—The outside window?

Easter may not have been a brilliant success so far as being a day for millinery display, but speaking of ham and eggs—just ask any kid what he thought of it!

Reports of the "egg fight" say that when someone shouted "He'll get you, Johnson" at the ex-champion, Johnson replied "I'll bet you $1,000 he doesn't." The bet was not taken. Thus the dollar makes cowards of us all!

The Distinction.

Know the difference between a special policeman and a policeman's special? Well, if you're reading the police reports lately you must have an idea of what a special policeman is. While a policeman's special is a "Mutt and Jeff."

And if you don't happen to be sure as to what a special policeman is, just ask some of the older men who left the force. But, of course, remember that that's only their opinion.

What They Fling at The "Man in The Street."

Don't you ever try to write something funny?

"Well, what's the matter—won't the boss let it go in?"

"I heard a good one the other day. I intended to tell you, but I've forgotten it now."

Called from "classified column":—"To let—No. 18 Orange Rear House." Might more properly have been placed in the horticultural notes.

Scientific note says that "Italian scientist after careful investigation has discovered that when dogs wag their tails it is usually for purpose of conversation." Pity the poor dog whose tail's been cut in his youth! He must have an impediment in his speech.

Local hatters' ad. tells of "new shapes in hard and soft hats," even though there was no Easter parade.

Don't kick; we have to have a little rain once in a while.

Board of Trade talks of abolishing the smoke nuisance; perhaps they had not read the bulletins telling that one Mr. Willard had already attended to that job.

The manufacture of shrapnel shells in the exhibition machinery hall will furnish an exhibition of local industry and patriotism rivaling in interest any exhibit the building ever contained.

Germany is almost as busy making excuses as waging war these days.

Just think of the thrills that will be accumulated by the end of the war if the prohibition movement carries.

For one day at least a prize fighter was a bigger news feature than the whole European war.

Funny, isn't it, that the Balkan states are about the only peaceful spot in Europe?

Some way or other the provincial government manages to convey the impression that they are not altogether proud of the way in which Premier Fleming handled the Berry-Brankley transaction.

Judging from the way the Conservative government purchased war supplies, one might almost believe they had been the expert adviser of the expenditure of New Brunswick on how to manage little matters of that kind.

No one questions the right of a live citizen to express his views on any public matter, but the signature of a dead man on a petition is at least open to question.

The Standard says that if all the civic departments were as well administered as that of Commissioner Wignore, "there would be less dissatisfaction with the present system of city government." Well, why aren't they? Evidently it is not the fault of the system, or Commissioner Wignore could not succeed.

Do you know your Nietzsche?

There is a rumor that the Nietzsche controversy may result in a revival of the Lancaster Argus, under new auspices.

MONEY MIGHT GO TO GOVERNMENT

Interesting Situation in Regard to Col. Tucker's Will

QUARTER MILLION AT STAKE

That Portion Which Was Devised to Niece Who Can Not Be Found—Address Given is That of Insurance Office—Wait a Year For Developments

Owing to the amount of money, a quarter of a million dollars, at stake the situation arising in connection with the difficulty experienced in locating one of the heirs under the will of the late Colonel J. J. Tucker, as noted in the Times, is of unusual interest.

One half of the estate was left to his niece, Miss Caroline Tucker of England, and this portion, after the payment of various bequests, amounts to more than $250,000. In the probate court this week was revealed the fact that the most diligent inquiries had failed to uncover any trace of this lady. The address left by Col. Tucker was found to be that of an insurance office in London. No one connected with the office knew why the office should have been given as her address. Other inquiries also failed.

According to the law a year from the death of the testator is allowed for the discovery of an heir and if no claim is made within that period it is taken for granted that none will be made. In that case, if it could be shown that Miss Tucker had died during the life of the testator, he would be regarded as having died intestate with regard to that portion of his estate.

In that case the amount in question would go to the next of kin, if any could be discovered. It is believed that Colonel Tucker had some relatives in Australia but information concerning them is very vague. If Miss Tucker is not found an effort will be made to locate the other heirs in Australia.

Failing the discovery of any heirs the residue of the estate would go to the government as in this case the provincial government would benefit to the extent of the quarter of million dollars.

Mrs. O'Dell was a niece and sister of Colonel Tucker but this was in error. Mrs. O'Dell is a sister of the late Mr. Weidon, Colonel Tucker's sister, and is believed by the Colonel to do not rank with the next of kin.

UNITED STATES STATUTE PREVENTS TONIGHT'S BATTLE IN NEW YORK

Washington, April 7.—Persons who had hoped to see the Willard-Johnson fight in motion pictures will be disappointed. A federal statute expressly forbids not only the interstate transportation of fight films, but the importation of such films from foreign countries. It provides a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for one year, or both, for each offence.

New York, April 7.—The privilege of becoming logic challenger for the world's heavyweight championship, was considered by local sporting men to be the big state of a ten round bout between Jim Coffey the Dublin Giant, and Carl Morris, of Salspula, Oika, here tonight.

In size Morris more nearly measures up to Willard, than any other man in the ring today, as he is six feet four inches in height and weighs 235. Coffey stands six feet three and weighs 200.

New York, April 7.—Sam Langford and Battling Jim Johnson, "black hopes," puffed and blowed through ten rounds to a draw last night. It was an exhibition of fat men instead of trained pugilists. They were tired at the end and neither suffered much from the blows of the other.

HOME, RESTORED TO HEALTH

W. Frank Hatheway, who has spent two months or so in the West Indies for the benefit of his health, returned on the steamer Chaudiere which docked last evening. One week in the south was sufficient to restore his health and he was able to enjoy the balance of his visit thoroughly. Mr. Hatheway spent a fortnight in Bermuda, another in Barbados and several days each in St. Lucia, Martinique and Dominica. During his stay among the islands he accumulated much valuable information on trade matters.

A NEW CEMETERY BEYOND FERNHILL

Formation of Company to Establish One on McDonald Property—Also Extension of Cedar Hill

Application is being made to the provincial government for the incorporation of the Pine Valley Cemetery Company. The applicants are H. Colby Smith, Frank L. Potts, Luther B. Smith, F. Herbert New, M.D., and George A. Clark, and these are named as provisional directors, with G. Earle Logan as solicitor for the company. The capital stock is $40,000, and the head office will be in the Parish of Simonds.

The company seeks authority to purchase a property of forty-five acres fronting on the old Westmorland road, beyond Fernhill, known as the McDonald property, formerly occupied by John Boyle, and bounded by the lands of Francis Giles, James Mullin and Lawrence Donnan, and to establish and maintain there a public cemetery.

Application is being made also by the Cedar Hill Cemetery Company for authority to extend their property by purchasing from John Connor sixteen acres adjoining the present cemetery limits.

The Cedar Hill Cemetery Bill will be considered by the corporations committee at Fredericton on Friday.
