Sidelights On Sport

Local baseball fans will be interested to know that Joe Tarbell, former star pitcher for the Marathons, is back in Montreal twirling in the Independent League.

Eddie Fitzsimmons, who was recently discovered by Dan-Yell Morgan, is being touted as the light-weight with the necessary qualifications to take the title from Benny Leonard. He is a fighter after the style of Terry McGovern and has a hard punch, in addition to being able to outbox many of the best men in his class.

The athletic meet held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I. on Saturday, was a success from many standpoints. The athletes who entered made an exceptionally good showing considering that the track was heavy and not fully suited to sprints.

If the Customs House nine can defeat the Times by a score of 8 to 3, and Fair Vale can defeat the Customs House 21 to 8, what can the Fair Vale team do to the Times aggregation? This is a question that the players on the Times team are anxious to have decided. It is up to Fair Vale to answer.

The "Jazz" Lambs, a famous baseball aggregation, are after new laurels and have set their cap for Fair Vale.

When a champion begins to slip, all the wisecracks get hep. This accounts for the fact that a flock of featherweights, and even bantams, are hounding Kilbane. Each is anxious for a shot at Kilbane's title. The lucky fellow, the lad who stops Kilbane, will make a mint of coin. Kilbane says he will keep on going until he gets a crack on the chin. Don't be surprised if Johnny is knocked out before 1919 says hello to 1920.

GOLF. St. John Players Win. An interesting match game was played between St. John and Woodstock golfers on the Riverside Golf Links, Saturday, the local players winning thirty-eight points to two. It was the first match game played since 1918 between these clubs.

As the visitors had to leave Riverside at 6:10 p.m., the usual 36-hole match was cut to 27 holes—three 9-hole rounds, the scoring system being one point for each nine holes, and one for the aggregate holes won. Five St. John men won all three rounds and so scored the maximum number of points—four each—for their teams. The others—most of them—were able to get away with two or three points. The battle went heavily against the visitors in the morning play, and after lunch a high wind added to the handicap they suffered through unfamiliarity with the course. The scores for the day's play were:

Upwards of 1,000 people witnessed the races at Sussex on Saturday. The 214 class event was captured by Baron A. in straight heats, while Lake Besure won the 224 class. The summary follows:

214 Class. Baron A. ... 1 1 1 Jenny Frisco ... 3 2 5 Tommy Cotter ... 4 5 2 Johnny Penn ... 2 6 4 Bob Mac ... 5 3 4 Roy Voio ... 6 4 3 Time—2.16; 2.18; 2.19 1/2.

224 Class. Lake Besure ... 6 1 1 Lady Cochato ... 1 6 3 2 Sox Deforest ... 2 2 2 5 Bavius ... 3 5 4 3 Queen Earle ... 5 4 6 0 Mannicobelle ... 5 3 4 4 Zuabaughman ... 7 7 7 0 Time—2.21; 2.19 1/2; 2.19 1/2.

Columbus Grand Circuit. At the Columbus Grand Circuit meet on Saturday, Leo won the 216 class trot, making three out of four heats, best time 2:06 1/4. The 208 class pace was won by Lillian T. in straight heats, best time 2:02 1/4. The 214 class trot was captured by Tommy Direct three out of six heats. Best time 2:07 1/4.

THE RING. Jack Twin Sullivan in Bout. Buffalo Times: There will be a one-act comedy put on at the ball park Monday evening, Jack Twin Sullivan against Paige Jamieson. Paige, before he got through with Twin, will think he's boxing a man with 'steen elbows. Paige won't hit Sully one solid punch. And Jack is old enough to be Paige's papa.

Champion Kilbane Slipping. Johnny Kilbane, who has hung on to the world's featherweight championship for more than seven years, a long, long time for any man to retain a boxing title, appears to be about "all in." There is nothing disagreeable in that. Kilbane has lasted much longer than the great majority. Never of robust construction, but endowed with wonderful cleverness, plus a wise old head, Kilbane has fought off scores of budding champions and he still rules the roost, but he's slipping fast.

Not long ago Ralph Brady gave Johnny a pasting, then Frankie Brown wallowed him and this week at Philly Joey Fox had Johnny on the floor, but failed to stop the champion. Fox is supposed to be the British featherweight champion. In reality, Fox is very ordinary boxer, easy to pluck, if Kilbane were in his oldtime form.

Lambs have a percentage of 500, having won two and lost two games. They are confident that they will go through the remainder of the season without a defeat and are anxious to start on the road as soon as possible. A game can be arranged through the sporting editor of the Times.

Many racing enthusiasts were disappointed at learning Saturday that the free-for-all in Sussex had been postponed. As a result hundreds who intended attending the meet are now unable to do so.

Local enthusiasts are still anxiously awaiting something definite about the proposed races here in connection with the maritime circuit. If it is true that they are not to be held because of a decision given in Sackville, why is it that the same St. John horses are still racing in other places? There must be some other reason for not holding them here.

Games in the City League will be resumed this evening, Carleton and Fairville playing regular scheduled game. It is to be hoped that both the fans and players will prove themselves good sports and that everything will run along smoothly from now on. Tomorrow evening St. Peter's will play the Y. M. C. I.

SCHOOL GIRL TELLS OTHERS

How They Can Find Relief From Periodic Sufferings.

Nashua, N. H.—"I am nineteen years old and every month for two years I would often faint and have to leave school. I had such pain I did not know what to do with myself and tried so many remedies that were of no use. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and that is how I found relief from pain and feel so much better than I used to. When I hear of any girl suffering as I did I tell them how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me."—DELINA CORNBIRD, 29 Bowers St., Nashua, N. H.

MARTIN, 29 Bowers St., Nashua, N. H. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, therefore is a perfectly safe remedy to give your daughter, who suffers from such painful periods as did Miss Martin.

The season so many girls write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice, is because from their 40 years experience they have a store of knowledge which is invariably helpful.
