NOT LIVELY AT THE CORNER TODAY

The real estate auctions at Chubb's Corner did not attract any heavy investors this morning. St. Paul's Block at Lakeside, owned by W. E. Raymond, and the J. V. Munroe freehold dwelling, 196 Va. N. St., were the only property sold.

Auctioneer Potts sold four houses for a total of $22. These were the buildings on the south side of Sheffield street, which are to be removed in connection with the militia grounds around the new armory. Wm. Evans bought the first for $12; Clarence McCarty another for $6 and J. J. Soper another for $4 each.

BUSINESS CHANGE AND ENLARGEMENT

G. E. Barbour Co., Ltd., are moving into new and enlarged premises below Nelson street on the North Wharf. Their new stand gives them almost an entire block of the North Wharf. The Barbour Co. is now occupying the old Barbour Co. building, 100x150, with their own fish warehouse, the old Harrison warehouse adjoining the rear with a floor space of 80x100. A feature of the new location is that they will have six shipping doors on the south side of Sheffield street, which are to be removed in connection with the militia grounds around the new armory. Wm. Evans bought the first for $12; Clarence McCarty another for $6 and J. J. Soper another for $4 each.

WAS SPOON TO MARRY. (Annapolis Spectator). The circumstances of the death of Miss Ethel, the only daughter of Burton Eaton, of Granville Centre, in Revelstoke, B.C., in the 26th year of her age, are most pathetic. She went to Revelstoke two years ago and engaged as teacher. Soon after she met Charles Gray, formerly of Halifax, and became engaged. They were to be married about July 1, and a honeymoon (by some to be held in Granville Centre) was arranged. Preparations were being made at the home for the happy event, when she fell ill, and died here Thursday, Miss Eaton leaves six sisters and two brothers.
