Johnson Increases Shutout Record—Some Interesting Contests.

New York, April 16.—The great outdoor spectacle—the 1924 baseball revue—was presented amid typical settings yesterday, while nearly a quarter million spectators applauded the efforts of old stars and new.

Walter Johnson, for Washington, pitched his 10th shutout against Philadelphia, and increased his string of strike-outs to more than 3,000. The Senators won 4 to 0.

At the National League opening at St. Louis in a heavy hitting battle the home team illustrated the famous phrase, "won in the ninth," defeating the Cubs 6 to 5.

At Boston the world's champion Yankees proved their steel by winning the hardest fought contest of the day, 2 to 1. At New York the maligned Brooklyn Robins defeated the National League champions in a close game, 3 to 2.

Slater Works Well. George Slater, the great St. Louis American manager, after a season's lay-off with defective vision, yesterday batted .500 and was largely responsible for his team's 7 to 3 victory over Chicago. He fielded 16 chances perfectly.

Both Ruth did not hit a home run but he started the Yankee rally in the ninth inning which brought his team from the rear and led to victory. Cy Williams, the National League home-run king, tuncd up with three singles. Harry Heilmann, American League champion batsman, started with an average of .686, and Roger Hornsby, his National League rival, chalked up 400. Ty Cobb batted .333 and saved his team's game with a sensational catch.

Bert Blue, Detroit first baseman, made the only Detroit home run of the day, giving his team a 4 to 3 victory over Cleveland.

Shawkey Holds Boston. Although Johnson's four-hit game against Philadelphia was the best pitching performance, Bob Shawkey of the Yankees held Boston to two hits in seven innings, until removed for a pinch hitter. Howard Ehmke, who opposed him, allowed the world's champions sluggers only five hits, two of which came in the ninth.

The Phillies and the Braves played to an eleven-inning tie in Philadelphia, the score standing 9 to 6. In the ninth inning Les Barnes went into the box with the bases full and none out. He retired the Phillies after one run had crossed the plate, but this run gave them the tie.

NEWS NOTES GATHERED FROM WORLD OF STAGE AND SCREEN

TELEPHONE CLUB GIVES FINE SHOW

Service First Organization Presents Three Act Comedy in Own Hall.

"A POOR MARRIED MAN," a comedy in three acts, by Bert Watson, produced by the Service First Club of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., filled the company's auditorium, managing director, C. A. Kee; stage manager, J. W. Duncan; secretary, Miss E. Thompson; property man, H. Seely; electrician, H. Muller; carpenter, G. D. Thompson; music by Putnam's orchestra.

It is marriage a success? According to the result of the action of the piece as well presented by the telephone folks in their own auditorium last evening, one might collect as many responses to this question as to a query as to the success of prohibition. It leaves one very much in the air. But the play afforded a good evening's entertainment to between 200 and 300 people and they went away happy.

The Service First Club possesses amateur talent which is above the average and they clearly demonstrated their abilities along this line in last night's production. Mr. Watson was particularly good and took every advantage of the bright lights with which his part abounds. Mr. Wilson was well cast in a juvenile part which required considerable talent to put over, but he acquitted himself well. Miss Wayne, as a real, hard-boiled woman-in-law, acted the part in a convincing manner and drew much applause from her audience. Miss Shaw, Miss Graham and Miss Wilson all made charming appearances and their dramatic work was also excellent.

Mr. Till, as a negro servant, furnished much of the humor of the piece and he was accorded a good reception. Mr. Leggett in a character role contributed to the entertainment in the manner in which he handled a difficult piece. Between the acts a black-face specialty by Messrs. C. Rankine and W. O'Brien made a big hit. They introduced some timely jokes, touching upon the characteristics of several of their fellow employees. While many of them were "over the head" of the rank outsider, there was evidence, from the volume of laughter which followed each, that the telephone people present appreciated their significance. Miss M. T. Miles was heard in charming solos.

The piece will be repeated this evening and already there is said to be a good advance sale for the repeat performance.

Charles Ray, known and loved by millions of screen fans, and Thomas H. Ince, producer, have again joined forces. The gates of the Charles Ray Studios in Los Angeles have been permanently closed and Ray has returned to work under the guidance of the man who first discovered him.

Music In Anything Says This Composer

Dave Ross of San Francisco says there is music in anything. "I ought to know," declares he. Sol Lesser, who owns 120 moving picture theatres on the Pacific Coast, says he entertained 25,000,000 people last year. His gross receipts were $9,000,000. Government war tax collectors took $1,000,000.

Fred Niblo is the latest director to decide on making a picture abroad. Mr. Niblo will sail the first part of June to make "The Red Lily" in Brittany and Paris. Ramon Novarro will have the leading role.

Warner Baxter, following a fine characterization which he developed for "Those Who Dance," has been signed for three years by Thomas H. Ince.
