

It was then Resolved that the Rev. J. M. Cramp, A. M., President of the Baptist College, Montreal, Revs. J. Francis, and J. Wallace, of New Brunswick, be invited to take a seat in council with us.

It was also Resolved, that any ordained ministers or licentiates in regular standing with the churches composing this or the N. B. Association, who may be present and are not delegates, be invited to take a seat in council with us. No names were understood to be reported.

Rev. T. McGee took his seat as Messenger from the N. Brunswick Association.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Committee of arrangements it was Resolved—"That the morning sessions continue till two, adjourn to half past three, and continue till six; immediately after which, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, meetings will be held for the promotion of Home and Foreign Missions.

Met at half-past 3 o'clock.

* A letter from the Canada Baptist Union to the N. S. Baptist Association having been read, "expressing the desirableness of a closer union between all the Baptists of British North America being effected and manifested," and declaring the Rev. Mr Cramp to be representative of such union at this session of the Association,

It was Resolved, That Rev. Dr Crawley, Rev. W. Chipman, and R. B. Dickey, be a Committee to meet Brother Cramp and confer with him on the object of his mission and report thereon to this Association.

Letters from the Free Will and Free Christian Baptists having been read to the Association, in answer to certain proposals made to them by delegates appointed to visit them, action on these was deferred till Report of Delegation was heard.

The Committees before referred to in connection with the nomination of Committee of arrangements were appointed as follows:

To examine the Circular Letter, Rev. R. W. Cunningham, Bro. J. Ferguson.

To Report on the Bible Translation cause, Rev. J. Pryor, C. Tupper, and Bro. J. W. Nutting.

To Report on Home Missions, Revs. D. Harris, S. T. Rand, A. S. Hunt, G. Richardson, Bro. J. Kempton, S. Taylor, and W. H. Chipman.

To Report on Foreign Missions, Revs. E. A. Crawley, T. S. Harding, W. Burton, I. E. Bill, N. Viditoe, Breth. W. Rickerson, J. Mosher, W.
