SNOW SLIDE.

About twelve o'clock to-day a snow slide frightened a team of coach horses standing at the Victoria hotel. The horses ran down King street but were stopped on the Market square, no damage resulting.

TRUE, EVERY WORD OF IT.

It was in the postoffice corridor that he buttonholed the looker-on and shouted in his ear, "I like The Gazette. It is honest, fearless and wide awake. It is independent of parties and cliques and rings. It is the best paper in Canada, sir; the best paper in Canada." From such a man such praise is gratifying, and no less gratifying is the reflection that it is not unmerited.

THEATRICAL.

A fair sized audience attended the Institute last night to witness "Lucille" as played by the Peoples' Theatre Company. The play was quite well mounted and Miss Arne Walker played her character of Lucille very nicely and looked quite sweet and attractive as the loving Southern lady. The play is founded on the civil war in United States. Miss Allen as Gay Carlyle was quite up to her part and Miss Churchill as Kate Wilmarth, the spy was quite strong. Mr. Knight as Federal officer in love with Lucille and Mr French as the plotting Colonel of the Kentucky Independents seemed to please in their several characters.

Tonight the strongest play of the company "Joshua Whitcomb" will be given and there will be two special songs and clog dance and other attractions introduced.

ANOTHER MISSING MAN.

A reward of $250 is offered to any person furnishing information that will result in locating the whereabouts of Edgar W. Upton who has been missing since December 11th. The missing man is described as follows: Age 28 years; about 5 ft. 10 in. high; weighs 155 pounds wears a full beard, dark brown inclined to curl; very thick curly hair; high forehead; grey blue eyes; fair, pale complexion; lame in right leg; wears cork soles with high heel; right leg two inches shorter than the other, and stiff at hip, so that when he is seated his leg is in line with the body; is not able to lace the boot on his right foot unaided. When last seen, Upton had on a brown ulster and brown suit of clothes. Was at Ottawa, Canada, Dec. 11th, and was traced to Winnipeg Dec. 13th. Is educated, gentlemanly and religious. Address Thomas Byrnes, Chief Inspector, New York.

THE VALENTINE.

The origin of St. Valentine was religious, but the observance of the day has always had a tinge of sentimentality. The methods of its observance have however, been constantly deteriorating for years, and now when one sees the red hot colors and ribald rhymes by which it is characterized, he is apt to lament its survival. No sensible man or woman ever seeks occasion to give expression of his or her esteem for one of the opposite sex surreptitiously, and no manly man or womanly woman ever can be justified in stabbing another anonymously. The valentine is always a nuisance in the post office, a bore to the recipient and in most cases a slur on the good sense of the sender. Christmas, New Year, Birthday and Easter cards, have some meaning and are graceful tokens of remembrance of friend by friend, but the valentine is without significance to a sensible man or woman, and should sink into the oblivion which envelopes hundreds of follies that are no more vapid or senseless.

The scholars of the Portland Industrial School are busily engaged in preparing for their annual sale, which will take place on Easter Monday and Tuesday. The directors of the school, as well as the scholars, have decided to divide the proceeds of the sale between the school and the Portland free public library. This will no doubt be a means of drawing out a large public patronage. The library is in need of funds and the people of Portland ought to extend their hearty support to any effort made to place so valuable an institution to a community on a first-class footing. Contributions for the sale will be gladly received by the directors and may be left at the library.

City Police Court.

Miles Sweeney, given in charge by his wife, Elizabeth Sweeney, for being drunk and assaulting her in a house in Union alley, was fined $20 and costs or 2 months jail.

H. McDonald was likewise given in charge for wife beating. A warrant was issued for McDonald on this charge some time ago, but he kept dark, going to his home only for his meals. Last night he got his supper as usual and left the house. Between ten and eleven o'clock he returned with three companions, and being refused an entrance, broke in the door. They demolished the furniture, stoves, and anything they came across, attempting at the same time to assault the women with the broken articles, McDonald hurling a large piece of the stove at his wife. Detective Ring and Officer McGuiggan arrested him on Union street later in the night. The other scoundrels have not yet been captured.

Being arraigned before the magistrate this morning on the old charge, McDonald got the full penalty, 2 months jail, hard labor, without the option of a fine.

No Annexation in New Brunswick.

At the People's Theatre, in the Institute last night, Mr. French, a member of the Company, who had evidently been reading The Gazette, took occasion to apologize for the offence unwittingly given the previous night by one of the Company who had been hissed for his expressions regarding "the stars and stripes and the stars in the sky." Mr. French explained that there was no idea or intention of offending anyone, and that as they had only played in Fredericton and this city on British soil as yet, the fact that they were no longer on United States territory, was apt to be forgotten; but they would endeavor to make no mistake of the kind again. The speaker said a similar oversight had occurred in Fredericton when the audience in that city also hissed the player, for a like observation.

When this company returns to the United States, they can from their own experience assure all the audiences they may then meet and all scribblers for New York and Boston papers as well that there is no such thing as annexation recognized or tolerated in the Maritime Provinces of Canada.

Charles T. Gillespie, who recently won the amateur backward skating championship of Canada from Geo. Trites of Halifax, has issued the following challenge:

To the Sporting Editor of The Gazette.

I hereby offer to skate any amateur in Canada a backward race of one mile or more for a gold medal, said race to be skated in Victoria Rink, St. John, at any time to be agreed upon.

I now hold the amateur championship of Canada, and am prepared to maintain my right to it. Any communications may be made direct to me, or to the Sporting Editor of The Gazette.

Charles T. Gillespie.

Here evidently is a chance for some of the Upper Canadian flyers; and the St. John boys will stake their piles on Gillespie, for he is a good one.

F. W. Craft who was a well known figure in skating circles in St. John a few years ago is back on a visit to the town. Since going away Mr. Craft has increased his interest in skating and has won numerous victories in and about New York. Perhaps his best races were those which gave him the championship: First a 25 mile race at Hoboken N. J. and a 10-mile race later on. Since then (1887) he has won several other victories which have raised him in the sphere of skaters with the best. As competitors, more than once Mr. Craft has had such men as the Rubenstein brothers, O'Brien, Gordon of Montreal, to compete against and has as is seen come off with not the least success.

The figure skating tournament for the championship of Canada, under the Amateur Skating Association of Canada, took place Friday morning at Montreal. The competitors were Louis Rubenstein, A. Rubenstein, of Montreal, and G. D. Phillips, of New York. The list comprises 412 points in all, 50 of these being for specialties. It was easily seen that Louis Rubenstein, out side of the fundamental principles, was head and shoulders above the New York man, although in field figures he is very graceful and methodically thorough. The average number of points awarded by the three judges is as follows:

Louis Rubenstein, 375 2-3.
G. D. Phillips, 314 2-3
Abraham Rubenstein, 300.

Although the intention was to give only one medal for the championship, the association decided to give a silver medal to Mr. Phillips as a token of appreciation for his pluck in going to Montreal to compete after being so recently defeated by the champion in New York.

The championship distance skating under the auspices of the Amateur Skating Association of Canada took place in the evening. Following were the winners.

Half mile boys' race—J. McLean. 200 yards—E. D. Irwin, 24½ secs.
One mile—Dead heat: E. Irwin, and C. Gordon, 3.37.
Half mile—E. D. Irwin, 1.38.
Half mile, backward—Fred Scott, 154.
220 yards, hurdle—E. D. Irwin, 39 secs.
Five miles—F. Carroll, Pictou, N. S., 20.24.

The ten mile race in the Dominion rink was a dead heat between D. Brown and W. Latermouille. Time—37 mins.

Does Total Abstinence Shorten Life?

To the Editor of The Gazette.

Sir—The above very strange leading called attention to an article in your issue of yesterday, said to be taken from a report of a committee appointed by the medical association of Great Britain.

If medical testimony is to be the standard by which to judge of the injurious or beneficial effects of intoxicants as a beverage, the testimony in the article referred to, would cause the human family to thank man for transforming (by rotting) the good things which God has sent for the use of man into maddening drink, and we should be compelled to believe that an even natural life will wear out the machinery of the human body quicker, than when either occasionally or frequently exciting that machinery to hurried action, by the consumption of intoxicating liquors. That old well known fact that "doctors widely differ" will prevent me from acting in the advice here given.

I have before me the following medical testimony signed by nearly two thousand Physicians and Surgeons of Great Britain, including the Physicians to the Queen and many others of the most eminent of the profession.

"We the undersigned are of opinion,

1st. That a very large portion of human misery, incinding poverty, disease and crime, is induced by the use of alcoholic or fermented liquors as beverages.

2nd. That the most perfect health is compatable with total abstinence from all such intoxicating beverages whether in the form of ardent spirits, or as wine, beer, ale, porter, cider, etc.

3rd. "That persons accustomed to such drinks may, with perfect safety, discontinue them entirely, either at once or gradually.

4th. "That total and universal abstinence from alcoholic liquors and intoxicating beverages of all kinds, would greatly contribute to the health, the prosperity, the morality and the happiness of the human race'

I would ask the reader to put the above, and the article referred to, to the test of careful judgment, and which would you recommend to your boy of 15 to 20 years for his future guidance.

I feel that a much more reliable test of the effects of alcoholic beverages on health and life is the following synopsis of the 32nd annual report of the Secretary of the United Kingdom provident institution of London, one of the largest, soundest and wealthiest mutual life insurance organizations in the old world.

He reports as follows of the total abstinence lives insured.

Calculated deaths by Carlisle tables	157
Actual deaths during the year	90
Difference in favor of total abstinence	67
Calculated claims according to Carlisle tables	$130,240
Actual claims	60,625
Saved by total abstinence	$69,215

Of the moderate drinkers lives insured:

Calculated deaths according to Carlisle tables	244
Actual deaths for the year	282
In excess of calculated deaths	38
Claims according to Carlisle tables	$244,415
Actual claims	281,077
In excess of calculated claims	$36,662

The contrast between the death rate of total abstainers and moderate drinkers, as set forth by these mathematical calculations, and experience is something which ought to startle moderate drinkers. No alcohol is found in any of the articles from which alcoholic liquors are produced until it undergoes decomposition, or in plain English, "rotting," hence the fight of nature against all intoxicating liquors, as soon as it touches the human body, either internally or externally. The beautiful and innocent of all earth's living things, drink nothing but the crystal wave which gushes from the springs.

Sincerely yours,
A Constant Reader.

DANGER!

People having Feather beds and Pillows do not seem to realize the danger there is in using them without being cleaned, especially in times of an epidemic, as feathers retain all the exhalations and poisonous matter exuding from the person, and by so doing spread sickness through the family.

Our steam cleansing process eliminates all the poisonous matter and leaves the feathers in a better condition than ever.
