POOR DOCUMENT

Town Tattle

It is a pretty sure sign that a man cannot be utilized in an election or a carnival parade when we habitually think of him as being six feet long instead of six feet high.

* * *

Notwithstanding the fact that ghostly sails no longer skim the placid surface of Kennebeccasis bay, and that the fairies have deserted the dim recesses of the Pickwocket, none of the inland waters of the provinces are equal in attractiveness to the bay and river and none in their surroundings are more diversified or beautiful. Leaving Indiantown by the Clifton at 9 o'clock, the excursionist soon passes Boars' Head, the Brothers and Barlow's Bluff, Drury's Cove, the Minister's Face, Moss Glen, and Clifton with its pleasant farms and beautiful church, half-hid by Sugar Loaf Mountain; through the bridge and into the sinuous river, with its islands and elms, and past the Pickwockket Mountains so much like the Catskills that one almost expects to see Rip Van Winkle from one of their grey cliffs surveying the scene below, and then steps ashore at Hampton, three hours after leaving St. John.

* * *

Hampton is one of the most charming of provincial villages. Though near the wharf the Messrs. Flewwelling do a large business, the streets a few rods away, that are occupied exclusively by private residences, are so quiet and calm that one would think that here the struggles and ambitions and jealousies of the great world were quite unknown. Happy is the man who can lead a dual life; who when he swings to the the door of his safe or shop and turns the key, leaves safe or shop behind him, with all their perplexities and cares. I venerate the old trees that shade the pleasant streets of Hampton, and the country roads round about, where one can walk without fear of being molested by such footpads as prowl in the suburbs of the city.

* * *

A half hour's walk from Hampton and one is at Hampton station, when at 2 o'clock if he chooses, he can take the C. P. R. express, (Conductor Rainnie) for St. John. In this way the round trip from St. John to Hampton by the Clifton, and thence to St. John by train is made in six hours, with two hours to the good for a stroll about the village. I think it would be well for the owners of the Clifton to arrange with the railway people for the issue of round trip tickets, going by steamer and returning by train or vice versa, every Thursday during the summer.

* * *

But if one prefers to remain a few days in Hampton the doors of Mr. Scribner's new hotel, the Vendome, are open to him. The Vendome is capitally arranged for the comfort of its guests and is extremely popular with tourists and pleasure seekers generally. Among those who are located there permanently for the summer are Mr. Swinyard and Mr. Charlton, of Ottawa, and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Frink and Mrs. C. G. Turnbull of St. John.

* * *

The Loch Lomond road, if not the best is one of the best roads leading out of St. John. Rough as it was 15 or 20 years ago, the scenery of the lakes and the opportunities for fishing and shooting which they afforded made the Ben Lomond House one of the most popular resorts in the vicinity of the city; and because of the improvement in the highway and the excellence of its appointments and cuisine, the "Ben Lomond" this season has more guests than ever. Host and hostess were never more alert in looking after the comfort of their visitors than Mr. and Mrs. Lawton, to whose care the most exacting, as well as the most unsophisticated may submit themselves without a doubt but that all their reasonable wants will be anticipated and provided for.

* * *

A good many years ago when wanderings over the site of the ancient city of Louisbourg, it was covered with a dense growth of evergreen and deciduous trees, I found pansies in bloom where they had been planted a hundred and fifty or two hundred years ago, and which for a hundred years at least, had been untended by human hands. Of all the houses and churches and business stands that once occupied the place I failed to find one brick or stone on top of another. There was a great population, of whom some were rich and some were poor, some were proud and some were humble, who lived and married and died, but aside from the ruins of their fortifications nothing remains to mark their dwellings or their graves but a simple flower. So in Clover valley, the valley of the Mispec, which is reached by turning to the right from Loch Lomond road, between Allandale and the Ben Lomond House, where once stood one or two habitations, the homely flowers that our grandmothers loved, still maintain an existence. I hear of large catches of brook trout in the Clover valley pools of the Mispec, as well as in McDonald's lake near by. Visitors to this pleasant valley, whether fishermen or not will be kindly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James Macfarland. However if one is contented to fill his basket with small trout and fails to do so in Clover valley, he will be likely to succeed by fishing in Black river, either up or down the stream from W. M. Stewart's, at Garrett's on the St. Martins road. They tell me that this is the last recource of all disappointed fishermen and that they generally come away happy.

* * *

"Marriage is a failure," he said under his breath as he wrestled with the churn dasher. He had planned to attend surreptitiously the opening of the carnival but the day was well nigh spent and not a yard away his wife placidly darned his socks, with blood in her eye and a broom handle across her lap.

The Highest Praise.

I used a bottle of Burdock Bitters for my dyspepsia and it proved a perfect cure, and I was blessed the day I got it. I would not be without it now for a good lot. It is worth its weight in gold. Mrs. W. J. Smith, Haley Station, Ont.

Get the Best.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the best, most prompt and safest cure for cholera morbus, dysentery, sick stomach, cramps colic, diarrhœa and cholera infantum, that has yet been discovered. Its popularity increases each year. All medicine dealers sell it.

A Confirmed Grumbler

Is generally so because of confirmed dyspepsia or indigestion, caused by eating too rapidly, bolting food without chewing it sufficiently, overloading the stomach, etc. Burdock Blood Bitters cures dyspepsia and all kindred diseases.

A Plain Statement.

All poisonous waste and worn out matter ought to escape from the system through the secretions of the bowels, kidneys and skin. B. B. B. cleanses, opens and regulates these natural outlets for the removal of disease.

A Family Affair.

We have used Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in our family of six persons during twelve years, and in all cases of diarrhœa, summer complaints, etc., it never fails to cure. This valuable medicine should be on hand in every family. Mrs. Anna Allen, Harley, Ont.

A Big Success.

For summer complaints and diarrhœa I can truly reccommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, as I have used it in my family with great success and would not be without it. John B. Havens, Grimsby, Ont. Never travel without it.

Thomas Austin, aged 62 years, was found dead in his barn at Avondale, N. S. on the 16th inst. Cause heart disease.

Words cannot express the gratitude which people feel for the benefit done by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Long-standing cases yield to this remedy, when all others fail to give relief. This medicine thoroughly expels the poison from the blood.

Rev. D. J. McDowell of Toronto, is lecturing in Nova Scotia, on the Jesuit question.

Ayer's Hair Vigor has long held the first place, as a hair-dressing, in the estimation of the public. Ladies find that this preparation gives a beautiful gloss to the hair, and gentlemen use it to prevent baldness and cure humors in the scalp.

New Glasgow building operations this season will reach $60,000.

The itching of the scalp, falling of the hair, resulting in baldness, are often caused by dandruff, which may be cured by using Hall's Hair Renewer.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world.
