Liver Pills for torpid liver and bilious iess. A Golden Opinion. Mrs. Wm. Allan, of Acton, declares that remedy in the world for colds, croup sore throat, burns, scalds and other pain

Hop Bitters are the Purest and Best Bitters Eyer Made.
They are compounded from Hops, Malt, Buchu, Mandrake and Dandelion,—the Buohu, Mandrake and Dandelion,—the oldest, best, and most valuable medicines in the world and contain all the best and most curative properties of all other semedies, being the greatest Blood Purifier, Liver Regulator, and Life and Health Restoring Agent on earth. No disease or ill health can possibly long exist where these Bitters are used, so varied and perfect are their operations.

their operations.

They give new life and vigor to the aged and infirm. To all whose employments cause irregularity of the bowels or urinary organs, or who required an Appetizer, Tonic and mild Stimulant, Hop Bitters are invaluable, being highly curative, tonic and stimulating, without intoxicating.

No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, what the disease or ailment is, nse Hop Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable use Hop Bitters at once. It may save your life. Hundreds have been saved by so doing. $500 will be paid for a case they will not cure or help.

Do not suffer or let your friends suffer, but use and urge them to use Hop Bitters. Remember, Hop Bitters is no vile, drugged, drunken nostrum, but the Purest and Best Medicine ever made; "the Invalid's Friend and Hope," and no per-Invalid's Friend and Hope," and no pe

An Irishman once called at a drug store to get a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for the Rheumatiam; the druggist asked him in what part of the body it troubled him most, "Be me soul said he I have it in every houl and corner of me. "

How Boys Succeed.

A few years sgo a drug firm in New York city advertised for a boy. The next day the store was thronged with applicants. Among them was a queer-looking little fellow accompanied by a woman who proved to be his aunt, in lieu of faithless arents, by whom he had been abandoned. parents, by whom he had been abandoned.
Looking at this waif, the proprietor said,
"I can't take him; besides, he is too

the sware by all the fabled gods he'd never advertised.

But the goods were advertised ere long, and "I know he is small," said the woman, but he is willing and faithful, and never drinks, uses tobacco or profane language. There was a twinkling in the boy's eyes which made the merchant think again' A partner in the firm volunteered to remark that he did not see what they wanted with such a boy-he wasn't bigger than a pint of cider. But after consultation the boy was set to work. A few contrasted well with the reluctance of the others. In the middle of the night the merchant looked in to see if all was right in the store, and presently discovered his youthful protege busy scissoring labels. "What are you doing?" said he. "I did not tell you to work nights." "I know you did not tell me so, but I thought I might as well be doing some In the morning the cashier got orders from the merchant to "double that boy's wages, for he is willing."

Only a few weeks elapsed before a show of wild beasts passed through the streets, and very naturally all the hands in the store rushed to witness the spectacle. A thief saw his opportunity and entered at the rear door to seize something, but in a twinkling found himself firmly clutched by the diminutive clerk afore said, and after a struggle was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked by the merchant why he stayed behind to watch when all others quit work, he replied : "You told me never to leave the stere when others are absent, and I thought I'd stay." Orders were immediately given once more, "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful." To day that boy, is getting a salary $2,500, and next month will become a
