WOMAN IS CHARGED WITH NEGLECTING HER CHILDREN

But When an Officer Went to Look for Mrs. McDermott He Found That She Was Missing.

A couple of days ago police head-quarters were given the information that a Mrs. McDermott, who resided in the St. Patrick street district, was not looking after her three young childron. She was reported as getting drunk and the neglected home was one of misery. An order was issued by the court to an officer to visit the house, and if the woman was found there in-toxicated to take her to the court. The poor little youngsters would be looked This morning Sergt. Campbell visited the home and was informed that the woman and her children had left the premises and are now supposed to be located in the North End.

It is the intention of the court officals to make the woman look after the children better or they will be taken away from her and placed in a comfortable home where they will receive proper attention. The father of the family is out of the city.

The police will this afternoon arrest Timothy O'Brien and the charge aging him is for hypothesis in the wine. The Allan liner Parisian took away from this port an entire Canadian cargo valued at $22,792.

In the police court this morning four drunks were fined the usual amount and went to jail in default of paying their fines.

The case against Jack Watts for allowing his horse to stand for five or six hours in the cold on King Square was to have been resumed this morning. The repairs to the Marsh Road break in the water pipe will be made tomornow morning. The cold weather is said to have prevented the repairs having been made on Monday, when the many citizens took precautions to draw their supplies of water.

Waterloo street residents are asking how much longer they will have to tramp around the excavation obstruction in front of the rebuilt manual training school. This hole has been turning people into the middle of the street amid mud, muck and rocks for the water amid mud, muck and rocks for the water amid mud, muck and rocks for the street and found, muck and rocks for the carties after the charge against the charge against him is for breaking in the windows of his father's house on St. Patrick street and following up the affair by attempting to beat the old man's brains out with the heel of a boot. Now that it is lying without any work going on it might be floored over to allow pedestrians the right of way.

The death occurred at an early hour this morning of Mrs. Daniel Donovan. She was a widow and was 57 years of age. The death took place at the home of her daughter, 20 Hanover street. Five daughters and six sons survive. The body will be taken to Petersville tomorrow morning.

"Did he hit you?" was asked the old man.

"Yes, a number of times. I was in bed when he came at me, and if I had not covered my head with the bed clothes he would have hurt me."

There were no further questions offered and a warrant was quickly issued for the arrest of the creature who not only damaged the property but threatend the life of his poor old father.

The old man said that the breaking of the windows allowed the cold in and caused considerable inconvenience by freezing the water.

It is not the first time that this wayward O'Brien has troubled his poor old dad.

Rev. David Hutchinson will give his very interesting lecture "From Ocean to Ocean" in the Tabernacle church on Thursday evening, Dec. 6th. The lecture is entertaining as well as instructive and has delighted several audiences in this city. The admission is only 10 cents.

Sift the Charges Made Against Safety Board Methods

The committee appointed by the safety board to investigate at the request of Ald. Vanwart, the affairs of the board, will meet at City Hall at 8 o'clock this evening. The first business to come up will be in connection with the charges made by Ald. Christic against Chairman Vanwart that he has not fully performed his duty. The former stated at a meeting of the common council a few days ago that Ald. Vancouncil a few days ago that Ald. Vanwart was not well acquainted with his duties as chairman of the safety board. Ald. Vanwart asked Ald. Christie if he had any grounds for such a statement. The latter said that he had and stated that No. 3 engine house was in a dirty condition. Ald. Christie mentioned that Engineer Leonard's room was not in fit condition for a sick man to live in. Ald. Christie made several remarks, one of which was that he would apply for an investigation, and it was agreed by the council that one would be held.

Ald. Bullock was appointed chairman of the committee. Several witnesses will be examined at tonight's meeting, among them will be some permanent.

among them will be some permanent men who reside at No. 3 station. All testimony will be taken under oath.

The outcome of the investigation is looked forward to with interst, as Ald. Vanwart is confident that the station Vanwart is confident that the station will be found to be in good condition. It is not known for sure whether Ald. Christie will have any witnesses at the meeting, but the committee will examine carefully both sides of the case. A few other matters may be looked into. Conditions which exist in other descriptions which considered also considered als fire stations may be considered, although no complaints from any, ex-
