

ship that the unanimous demand they made upon me was contrary to law. I have no objection to this doctrine as well as to the fact that it was not Mr. (now Lord) Stanley, who in reply to Mr. Robert Peel's motion, said that a select committee appointed to inquire into the political state of the Canadas, declared as follows:— "The first point to which the Honourable Member referred, was the constitution of the Executive Council. It may, perhaps, be necessary for you to inform the House that the Executive Council is a body existing in the nature of the Privy Council in this country—its composition, and not responsible to him, and forming a council against whose opinions, as well as its, he may act."

I fully expect that before a month has elapsed the country will be in a state to discuss the present House of Assembly, but until the feeling is quite ripe I shall not attend to it. I would therefore request your Lordship to send me an address on the subject, but to allow me to let the thing work itself; for it now requires no argument, as the strength of the supplies, and the money bill, and all other money bills, will soon speak for themselves in a provincial dialect which every body will understand.

The language contained in the 92 Resolutions from Lower Canada, as well as in the resolutions which have lately forwarded to the Government; the language contained in the Grievance Report of this province, in the petitions now forwarded by the House of Assembly of Upper Canada against me, and in Mr. Speaker Papeaneau's letter to Mr. Speaker Bidwell, are in my humble judgment, and that of all the people, and totally irreconcilable with the allegiance due from its colonies to the British Empire.

I feel quite confident that if such language be received by His Majesty's Government without a stern rebuke it will be aggravated; and I therefore expressly express my hope that your Lordship will be able to obtain from the Government, or to obtain from the House of Assembly, such a rebuke as will have the effect of restoring the British Government to its former position.

The Lord Glenelg, &c. &c. &c. I have the honour to transmit to you a copy of a letter which Mr. Papeaneau, Speaker of the Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, has addressed to Mr. Bidwell, Speaker of the House of Assembly of Upper Canada.

I have no objection to your Lordship's facts which are not submitted to, and have replied to the accusations which have been made against me by the House of Assembly of Upper Canada, which were made by their own declarations.
