[Progress is for sale in Truro at Mr. G. O. Fallow's, and at D. H. Smith & Co.'s.]

JAN. 18.—Mrs. Andrews, Hantsport, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Bligh. Those who attended the social, in the crypt of St. John's last Thursday evening, enjoyed a few hours very pleasantly. These evenings at St. John's are of a particularly interesting character, apart from the entertainment, which is always good. That of last Thursday evening, was no exception to its predecessors. Recitals by Miss McMillan and Miss Riche; song by Mrs. Brice and Mrs. McNeil; duets by Prof. E. R. Swart and Miss Hyde, always favorites, and a piano and violin duet by "Miss King and Mr. Williams" were some of the numbers of a most interesting programme.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickie are here from Canard, Kings Co., visiting Mrs. W. L. Dickie. Mr. Williams, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kent, who he accompanied here from England, is in addition to musical circles here, as he possesses a fine base voice, and is a good violinist of some ability.

Mrs. Gardner Cillih's party last Friday night was a great success. Cards directed the guests during the earlier part of the evening, followed by a carpet dance. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith, Miss Rose, Miss Blenkins, Miss Wetmore, Miss Shattford, Miss Brown, Miss Stanfield, Miss Fannie Stanfield, Miss Lillie Smith, Messrs. J. A. Ross, John Stanfield, C. B. Coleman, A. H. Bourque, H. C. Yell.
