Happenings of the Week

The weeks become more gay as the season advances. The present outlook is a very bright one for society, if the rumors of dances, brides, etc., prove correct.

Certainly the event of the week was the bridge in Keoth's Assembly Rooms. The success reflects credit on the various committees, and the proceeds, as everybody knows, will be devoted to a most urgent need.

There were occasional flurries of snow to remind one that winter is not far behind. The thought is a cheerful one, for the week implies so much variety for entertaining.

Everyone was surprised to hear of Margaret Anglin's illness. St. John always feels very much interested in Miss Anglin from the fact that she was a St. John girl. Her many friends here and elsewhere wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Barker, of Mt. Pleasant, entertained at the tea hour on Thursday.

Hon. George Clark and Mrs. Clark of St. Stephen, are in the city.

Mrs. W. D. Forster, who is to spend the winter in England, sails this week from Quebec.

Mrs. C. E. McPherson, of Winnipeg, entertained fifty little tots from the Children's Home, at a Halloween party last week.

Bishop Taylor Smith, the chaplain-general to the forces, who was in St. John a few months ago, is dangerously ill at his residence, Bromley, Kent.

Miss Ada Bayard left on Wednesday evening for Ottawa, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. Morris Robinson, sr., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ellis, of Quebec, arrived home yesterday.

Mrs. Hazen Hansard, of Ottawa, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Isaac Burpee, Mount Pleasant.

Senator and Mrs. Ellis leave on Monday evening for Quebec.

Mrs. J. K. Scammell and Mrs. M. LeWinn leave on Tuesday for Akron, Ohio, for the winter.

Miss Louise Symonds, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. Harrison Middleton, is expected home today.

Miss Faith Hayward, Queen square, entertained informally at the tea hour last Friday. Among the guests were: Miss Marion Macaulay, Miss Daphne Crosby, Miss Dorothy Brown, Miss Eunice Macaulay, Miss Jean Leavitt, Miss Lillian Anderson, Miss Bertha Macaulay.

Mrs. Silas Alward entertained informally at bridge on Saturday evening in honor of her guest Mrs. Lawson, of Fredericton. Among the guests were: Mrs. MacKenzie, Mrs. Miss Katie Hazen was hostess at a bridge on Monday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. L. Barker and Miss Lou Gilvan. Among the guests were: Mrs. Eason, Mrs. Wm. Vassie, Miss Lou MacMillan, Mrs. L. Barker, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. Geo. Mahon, Miss Houghton, Mrs. Harold Robinson, Miss Nan Barnaby, Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Miss Portia MacKenzie, Miss Lou Gilvan, Miss Minnie Gilvan, Mrs. Arthur Hazen, Miss Laura Houghton, Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. W. H. Harrison, Mrs. Alex. Fowler.

Mrs. Alex. Fowler was hostess at a delightful tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Madeleine Houghton. Mrs. Fowler received her guests in a gown of old rose crepe de chene. White chrysanthemums decorated the drawing room and tea-room which was presided over by Mrs. Geo. West Jones in a black lace gown, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Hazen, Miss May Harrison, Mrs. Wm. Vassie and Mrs. W. H. Harrison, and Mrs. L. Barker. Among the guests were: Mrs. Fred Johnston, Mrs. Geo. MacMillan, Mrs. Geo. McLeod, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. Bushy, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, Mrs. Club to place on Thursday evening, Mr. W. S. Fisher presiding. The reports of the treasurer, Mr. M. V. Padlock, and the secretary, Mr. Wm. Beadle, were received and showed the past year to have been a most successful one—the membership having increased and the financial condition in a good condition. At the meeting fifty-five new members were received. The club's own rooms are now not large enough to accommodate the members. The C. M. B. A. rooms, which are again the Art Club will be used in future. A splendid programme has been arranged for the winter months. Lectures, socials, etc. are in anticipation. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. S. Fisher; Vice-president, Mrs. Silas Alward, Miss McLeod, and A. Watson; secretary, Joshua Chaworth; assistant secretary, Mrs. R. G. Murray; treasurer, Mr. V. Padlock; assistant treasurer, Miss Williams; executive committee, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Wm. Brodie, John Seely, E. T. Sturdee and D. R. Jack. The very sudden death of Mr. J. W. Dick came as a great shock to his many friends in the city. The greatest sympathy is extended to his family.

Mrs. James Jack gave another small tea on Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Jack received her guests in Alice blue silk, accented with black. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. Lawson, in a rugon, sleeves, and a large black hat with plumes. Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. John MacLaren and Mrs. MacMillan waited. The table was very prettily decorated with chrysanthemums forming the centerpiece. Among the guests were: Mrs. Kestor, Mrs. Devr, Mrs. Weldon, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Mackenzie, Mrs. Downey, Mrs. R. B. Patterson, Mrs. Kaye, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. E. L. Jarvis, Mrs. E. L. Jarvis, Jr., Mrs. L. Jarvis, Mrs. J. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. P. B. Hines, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. E. A. Smith.

The friends of Mr. R. W. McLellan will regret to hear of his death which occurred in Halifax this week. Mr. McLellan was a teacher in the Rothery school for boys for a time. The incident surrounding his death was a particularly sad one.

Craig Parker, who died on Nov. 9th at his residence, Public Landing, at the age of 78, is survived by 4 daughters and 2 sons, Charles at home. The daughters are Mrs. Chas. Lawton, Mrs. Wm. Miller and Miss M. Parker of this city and Mrs. Wm. Campbell and Manks Parker of Westfield Beach. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock Saturday.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVES FAIL

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief. Write for it to the D.D.D. Laboratories, Dept. S. S., 49 Colborne street, Toronto.
