The spacious grounds which surround the building will be planted with trees and shrubs. It will probably be opened next summer and, it is hoped, will prove a success. A fine large school-house is being built for public schools. The apartments are large and airy, having lofty cilings. It is on a beautiful spot and will have spacious play-grounds. Near to it is the Hon. S. L. Tilley's fine brick residence with beautiful and spacious lawn in front. There are a number of other private buildings under construction. Tenders are out for the rebuilding of the Hospital, which was

St. Andrews, though at one time an extensive shipbuilding port, is not so at present. Only one vessel,-a schooneris on the stocks, which is nearly finished. There are a number of coasting vessels in the river awaiting a rise in freights, which they complain are very low just now.

Particularly noticeable among the dry good stores are those of Odell and Turner and John S. Magee. The latter also has a millinery branch, under the supervision of Mrs. Magee. The fruit stores of Messrs. E. Saunders and Mulligan ace attractive and the attendants are always ready to oblige the thirsty with cool soda, and fruit of every description.

finding hotel accommodation. He finally came to Kennedy's, which is only a minute's walk from the steamboat wharf, where he was accommodated. Other to hotels are Clark's, International, Bradford House, etc., etc. They are all filled, with tonrists, there being quite a number from St. John. The people generally are taking every possible means for pleasure, — yachting, boating, etc. A pic-nic on Wednesday last on board the schooner Easter, given by Captain Hugh Catholic pic-nic there.

Taking a drive out through Bocabec and Digdequash the scenery is beautiful, especially along the banks of the Bocabec and Digdequash rivers. At the latter place a large schooner is building and will soon be ready to launch. She is owned by Messrs. Burpee, Daniel, and Wesley Hanson.

whed by Messrs. Burpee, Daniel, and Wesley Hanson.

Then, last and least, is the post office, a very disgraceful building. To ask for a letter or buy a postage stamp you have to wait on the sidewalk, and speak through a pigeon hole, though the sun scorch, the rain pour, the cold freeze, or the snow fall.

A schooner was saired at Bababase

A schooner was seized at Bobabec yesterday. The seizure is a fizzle, as they tried to wake up the wrong man. The vessel which they captured was from St. Stephen, and not from Calais.
