CHILD SONGS

For the Primary Departments of the Sunday School and Day School and for Home Singing

Edited and in part composed by
CAREY BONNER

"Within 215 pages we have a really excellent collection of Child Songs suitable for the Primary Department of the Sunday School and Day School, and for Home Singing. There are also included in the book a number of marches that will be found useful in school, 'hush' music and twelve verses for repetition. There are also a full classified index and Hints and Suggestions on the teaching of the pieces. The object of the compiler has been to issue a work that will help to secure better religious teaching upon educational lines, and he has admirably succeeded."—The Teacher.
