

With the consent of the Minister of Justice, I had the four windows in the chapel replaced with stained glass. The Roman Catholic chaplain complained, with good reason, that the glare of the sun interfered with him while preaching. The stained glass obviates this difficulty.

The two little boys—brothers—aged ten and twelve, referred to in my last year's report, are going to the parish school. Immediately on their arrival here I had a suit of grey clothes made for them. I sent for the trustees of the school and enquired of them if they had any objections to my sending the boys to their school; they replied that they had not, to send them along, which I did, and they have attended regularly ever since. They are fine little boys and doing well.

There were three transfers to Kingston during the year, at a cost of $188.31.

A female prisoner was received here during the year who was insane.

The conduct of the prisoners during the year, with few exceptions, was good. Corporal punishment was only resorted to in one instance.

Arrangements were made with "The Eddy Manufacturing Co.," representing the woodenware manufacturers of Canada, to handle all the pails made here for this year.

Mr. Hayes, our Baker Instructor, died at St. John in April last, after an illness of four months. There has been no appointment to fill this vacancy. The baking is so far being satisfactorily carried on by convict labour and under the supervision of the Steward.

There were the following changes in the staff during the year:—Rev. Father Roy, Roman Catholic chaplain, resigned, and the Rev. Father Cormier was appointed in his place; Guards McNeil and Wathen resigned, and Teamsters McMaster and Forster were promoted to guards, and Richard Palmer was appointed teamster.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN B. FORSTER,

Warden.

J. G. MOYLAN, Esq.,
Inspector of Penitentiaries.
