

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

Decemb'r 5, 1876

Commerce.

Continued.Import Duties. Produce and Manufactures.

The produce and manufactures of, as well as all goods coming from, Austria-Hungary, which are imported into the territories and possessions, including the colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, and the produce and manufactures of, as well as all goods coming from British possessions, which are imported into the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, whether intended for consumption, warehousing, re-exportation, or transit, shall therein, during the continuance of this Treaty, be treated in the same manner as, and in particular shall be subjected to no higher or other duties than, the produce and goods of any third country the most favored in this respect. (Article II.)

Export Duties.

No other or higher duties shall be levied in the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, on the exportation of any goods to the territories and possessions, including the Colonies and foreign possessions, of Her Britannic Majesty, or in the territories and possessions, including the Colonies and foreign possessions, of Her Britannic Majesty, on the exportation of any goods to the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, than on the exportation of the like goods to any third country the most favoured in this respect. (Article II.)

Transit of Goods.

The two High Contracting Parties likewise guarantee to each other treatment on the footing of the most favored third country in regard to the transit of goods through the territory of the one from and to the territory of the other. (Article II.)

Favors, Immunities, and Reductions in Tariff.

Every reduction in the tariff of import and export duties, as well as every favor or immunity that one of the Contracting Parties grants to the subjects and commerce of a third Power, shall be participated in simultaneously and unconditionally by the other. (Article III.)

Exceptions: Turkish Trade, Frontier Traffic and District Privileges,

Customs Union.

The stipulations of the foregoing Articles, I to III, relative to the reciprocal treatment on the footing of the most favored third country, shall not apply—

1. To those special and ancient privileges which are accorded to Turkish subjects for the Turkish trade in Austria-Hungary.

2. To those advantages which are or may be granted on the part of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy to the neighboring countries solely for the purpose of facilitating the frontier traffic, or to those reductions of, or exemptions from, customs duties which are only valid in the said Monarchy for certain frontiers, or for the inhabitants of certain districts.
