DRAMATIC

CLUB CHOSES

For the first time in the history of Founder's Day celebrations (four years, is it?) the Dramatic Society has belved deep into its bag of tricks and decided to present a little contribution for the entertainment of all those who wend their way Memorial Hall-wards on the evening of Tuesday, the 15th

A one-act play entitled "Kilslime" written by our own Professor R. H. Wright, is on the bill for your amusement. It is a cleverly-devised, wiity skit circling around the person of one James B. Beale, owner of the breadcasting station CORK.

Over this station come those blatant, ludicrous radio commercials on B.O., halitosis, faulty liver, etc.

which are forever torturing our ears. Casting has been completed and we find such stars as Charlotte VanDine. Beulah Bateman, J. V. Clark and John Weyman ( whom, dountless, you all remember from

"You Can't Take It with You" fame) filling the roles. Bob Evans, whose voice has often floated over the can you hear me", will waft out over the stage at odd intervals as "The
