Revamped Reds Continue to Roll

By SARAH JONES

UNB Reds keep rolling along winning their 6th and 7th straight AUA league match with wins over UPEI this past weekend. The victories clinches the 4th and final playoff spot for the Reds with the championships slated for Dalhousie on the Feb 28-March 1 weekend.

The Reds smashed the Lady Panthers 3-0 on Saturday by scores of 15-3, 15-1 and 15-10 and continued their mastery of the Island Team 15-4, 15-2 and 15-4 on Sunday. Leading the Reds with kills, blocks and ace serves in parenthesis were-Cheri Moore (21-4-1), Michelle Mockler (19-5-2), Helen Bridges (14-1-2) and Donna Landry (10-2-1). Coach Sonny Phillips was pleased with the UPEI wins. "Last weekend playing against a fairly weak team in Acadia, we only played well enough to win. These matches against UPEI were blow outs which is important heading into the AUA's in three weeks."

On Sunday in ARMS Cup

Action, the Reds defeated Armes Armettes 4-1. Scores were 15-11, 15-12, 15-8, 15-12 and 9-15. Moore, Mockler and Bridges had 17 kills each, while Caralyn Campbell chipped in with thirteen. This was a closer match than the score indicates. The Reds need these long matches to prepare for the AUAs, both physically and mentally.

Ass't Coach, Alice Kamelmans was also encouraged by the play of the girls, "our outside hitting with Bridges, Denise Vautour and Donna Landry is becoming much more consistant of late and this is essential for our success. I was also impressed with our setting of Caralyn Campbell and especially in the job Kim Farrell did against the Armettes."

The Reds keep their 7-5 AUA record at home this weekend against Memorial. They open with an 8:00 p.m. match on Saturday and conclude with a 12:00 noon tilt on Sunday. Come out and support the Reds!

Rebels find Cause

By NORMA CODY

This past weekend gave volleyball fans a chance to see why the Rebels are sitting comfortably in second place in the AUA's.

The Rebels beat the Memorial Squad on Saturday 3-1. UNB lost the first game 10-15 but bounced back to win the match 15-8, 15-9 and 15-12. Mark Gallibois, rookie setter, saw his first full match and adequately filled the shoes of Mark Bolden, veteran setter, who was not present because of academic commitments. With a little more experience, Mark will definitely become a fine setter. Chris Moore led the comeback offensively with 13 kills while defensively Ted Dakin had 5 blocking stuffs.

Once finding their groove, the Rebels proved unbeatable and on Sunday blanked Memorial 3-0. The scores of that match were 15-6, 15-13 and 16-14. Chris Moore and Eric Renshaw each had 11 kills. Later that day the Rebels played Armie's Army, the Fredericton Senior Team and breezed by them 4-1. The Rebels and Army have been

Rebels on track for AUA's competing for the "Arms Cap." The final and deciding match for this competition is scheduled for February 22nd in the Main Gym.

This weekend UNB travels to the U de M Tourney. This will be their final AUA matches before the championships on February 28 and 29. Following the U de M Tourney, the Rebels will be focusing on their drive for the AUA title and a chance to play at the CIAU's in March in Winnipeg.

Awesome B-Ball

By JOAN BEST

The Bloomers were awesome in their performance against Memorial University this past weekend despite the less than ideal travelling conditions.

UNB defeated the girls from Memorial 84-57 in the first contest and sailed away with a 78-44 win in the second confrontation. The entire UNB team was determined from the opening tip-off and continued to take total control of their own destiny.

In the first game leading scorers were Shelley Slater with 20 points, Pauline London, Bonnie McKenzie and Alison Kent with 16 points each. Along with these efforts the entire team showcased a 68
