

then a document is transmitted, purporting to be signed by the Chiefs and principal men of the Tribe in which they signify their willingness to agree to certain amendments and corrections in the By-laws and Regulations for the purpose of meeting the objections raised in the report.

The undersigned, however, is of opinion that this is an irregular mode of making the necessary corrections which should be done in as formal a manner as possible by

(31)