

D 5866

The Ottawa Journal - Dec. 14. 1921

Mr. King's speech on Sunday to Marshal Foch was his first since his election. It was a creditable and pleasing effort, neither too long nor too short, and, in harmony with an inspirational occasion, thrilled the large audience in the theatre.

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume D 10

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA