

The Department will be much interested in the progress of Miss MacDonall's work, and it is hoped that her reports will give general information regarding the same. The women should be taught to sew in order that they may learn to make their clothes, and they should also be taught to knit in order that they may make stockings, etc.

Your obedient servant,

Howland
Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Indian Affairs, Letterbook,
10 December 1914 - 23 December 1914, (R.G. 10, Volume 5549)

POOR COPY

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA