

"up with the Liberal Party if there is a back down" said he.

The hope of some relief from the thralldom of special privileges will bring together men of progressive and liberal thought and, as you would think in your ~~case~~ <sup>case</sup> Jennie, with few no ~~something~~ <sup>something</sup> worth fighting for.

With much love from us all, + all love beyond, I Yours affectionately,
Harry Morrison
Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King
Prime Minister,
Ottawa.

Dear Jennie,
My dear Willie,

Knowing how harassed you are with correspondence, I have limited to better you with congratulations, but I must ~~send~~ a line to say how <sup>heartily</sup> pleased I am to see the Liberal Government making good. A few days before the budget was brought down an active Liberal worker has expressed to me his anxiety that the tariff reductions proposed would be in your speech at Ottawa by you in your speech on the address should not be implemented owing to the hands of the protectionists. It will be all
