

429
J. A. S. (Moulton) was sold to Mr. Larris who sold to Lord Selkirk who gave mortgage to William Clause, trustee, for £3475 and interest; the land, afterwards, passed to H. L.
Boulton.

^{new number} (when accident at Niagara) the late years ago. The heirs of the late Cal: Clause preferring their claims, but, I do not know, how the matter was arranged,
but suppose, the Cooks w.
know if Mr. Larris payment of £5775, was credited the six Nations, for it is stated, he purchased the ~~30000~~ ³⁰⁸⁰⁰ acres
- Crown or Indian lands could not be sold for taxes.

If you refer to the reports of these Commissioners in of 30 & afterwards, you may

430
for the information you desire.

(In haste)

Wm. L. Lusk

H. Sinclair Esq