

various campaigns she has given personal service and was Convener of the S.O.S. Committee in the last British Red Cross Campaign. She has also done her "bit" by knitting and sewing, and has ever been at the call of meetings and gatherings where her presence might lend support to the patriotic work of the times.

DEEDS THAT WILL LIVE

WHAT TORONTO WOMEN HAVE DONE

WOMEN'S War Work in Toronto began on the very day that Great Britain declared war on Germany. On August 4th, 1914, the first meeting of women for war purposes took place on the large verandah and grounds of "Deancroft," the home of Mrs.

MRS. R. S. WILSON.

A. E. Gooderham. A telegram, dated Aug. 3rd, from a Toronto girl, Miss Mary Plummer, then in Victoria, B.C., had been received by the Daughters of the Empire in Toronto. The telegram asked that the organization throughout Canada get together and work for an Hospital