

Gaylord

PAMPHLET BINDER

Syracuse, N. Y.

is smoothed. The
the men, their posi-
—we know where the unseemly parti-

and casts a gloom
ace. Earthly glory
vated social position
in the simplicity of
for her to the king,
the kindness she had
" The man whose importance of an
he ignorant of its d's minister. The hat he may act in society. But as for d faithful discharge
from position—the
ve tree is too happy
—the fig tree is too
will not leave its seek to be promoted
its condescension, to d even the bramble

destructive to itself
of the Bible. Can ce? the power that
s among those who never fades? Give
p without a grudge,
en, move smoothly
the reciprocation of
moved, and cordial
oor, the prince and
derives, from the
him to give. The both rejoice. The
ise of the life that

in all wisdom and
say, Young man,
is your study, the
art, then, and only