prices, and the market is now easy at 70 to 87.80 fed and watered, and 87.40 to 87.55 f.o.b. shipping points.

There have been no noticeable changes in cattle prices at Montreal. Butchers and packers generally are short of supplies and offerings are taken up briskly.

There has been a fair trade in small meats, but prices have ruled steady at the decline recently noted. Lambs are quoted at 85 to 85.25 and veal at $4.50; calves are scarce and in good demand at 81 to 81.5 each for good ones, and for the lower quality.

MONTEAL HOG MARKET

Montreal, Saturday, Sept. 2.—The market here this week for live hogs has been steady, with prices unchanged from those current last week.

EXPORT BUTTER AND CHEESE

Montreal, Saturday, Sept. 2.—The market for butter and cheese has not been quite as active as during the past few weeks, and there is some indication that the top has been reached.

There has been a fair trade in small meats, but prices have ruled steady at the decline recently noted. Lambs are quoted at 85 to 85.25 and veal at $4.50; calves are scarce and in good demand at 81 to 81.5 each for good ones, and for the lower quality.
