BOY'S LECTURE COURSE.

OUR boys turned out in goodly numbers to listen to the second lecture of the course, which was delivered on Friday evening, Feb. 16th. The title of the lecture was "A Bronze History." The lecturer dwelt upon the many important events in Canadian History, which have been commemorated by the issue of medals. The period covered by the lecture extended from the vice-royalty of De Levis, (1658) up to the Confederation of the Provinces, (1867.)

The third lecture of the course, will (D. V.) be delivered on Friday, March 23rd. by James McDunnough, Esq.

The subject chosen is "Foot-prints." Tickets will be issued at the Boy's meeting on the week previous to the lecture.

COME TO THE BOY'S MEETING,
SHAFTESBURY HALL,
Every FRIDAY Evening, at 8 o'clock.
