VEMBER 12, 1008

Co. es St. Montreal

othing Selling

...$1.75 l, Special ...$3.69 $5.00 ussian and velvet yle, best tailored. ...$8.25 to $25.00 50c to $1.50

s Store fontreal best val lors of pink, sky, d lustre. Taffeta, y, Special 49c pink, navy and dress goods.

ion.

DS. large variety o shades of greens

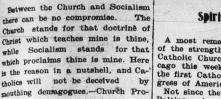

lies' costumes 0000000000 CO.

This. atism s or joint lady who is so well known as "the Madame de Stael" of Denmark. Yet another convert is the Countess Ahlfeldt-Lauriger, relative of the late Minister of the Interior. Her mother, the Baroness Rosenvern-Lehn, followed her into the Church, as did her two sisters, one of whom is maried to Baron edell .To dish chamberlain at the Vatican. ance in Ireland to-day, as denoted by the presence of intoxicated persons

Lord Braye intends to ask in the British House of Lords next week. that the Government introduce into Parliament a measure to abolish the Coronation oath, in which the Sopereign "invokes Almighty God to witness that certain doctrines held by the great majority of Christians, not only as awful, sacred and stupendous, but also as vital and fundamental, are false."

Vol. LVIII., No. 21

The Priests' Total Abstinence League, which was founded by the Rev. Father Siebenfoercher, formerly of St. Mary's Seminary, Cedar Point, at its recent meeting in New Haven, Conn., resolved to issue a little paper quarterly, as a medium of communication between officers and members. The first number has been issued.

By the bequests of Lord and Lady who died last autumn, the Archbishop of Westminster received about $900,000 for the education of priests. By means of this the Archbishop is greatly relieved of his former solicitude to provide his diocese with well-trained priests.

Sixty years have passed since William Maginn, the Irish writer, died, and now there is a project by the Irish literary workers in London to mark his grave by a Celtic cross. A tablet is also to be placed on the house in Cork in which he was born ciety Dr. Maurice Francis Egan, the well-known Catholic author, on his arrival at Copenhagen as American Minister to Denmark, found, besides the diplomats from Catholic countries, quite a colony of Danish Catholics, amongst them her Royal Highness the Princess Valdemar of Denmark, born Marie, daughter of the Duc de Chartres, and wife of the movement. present King's brother, and her only Catholic child, the Princess Margaret. Count Von Moltke-Huitfelt, son of the late Danish minister at Paris, who is married to Miss Bonaparte of Baltimore, is a prominent Danish

Fitzgerald in Kansas, an O'Connor Catholic.⁵ Another convert is the in Colorado, were elected to public offices by their fellow citizens

All friends of Ireland will rejoice on reading the following statement Cebu, Philippine Islands: "I have traveled much o. Europe and America and I am pleased to state that in my opinion there is less intemper

MONTREAL, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1908

anges, pour instened on to carry the good thinks of great joy. "And se, s fair land of Ame-rica, when bree priests and missiona set oncer priests and as well as to the stranger within

We feel that God has indeed bless

Church Extension

Ene True mene Witness

Note and Comment Catholic Missionary Congress. Imposing Ceremonies and Brilliant Speeches.

Spirit of Perfect Union Marked Entire Proceedings.

A most remarkable demonstration of the strength and activity of the Catholic Church took place in Chi-cago this week, the occasion being the first Catholic Missionary Conuttermost bounds of the earth to carry the message of salvation and to announce the kingdom of God, it has been the singular prerogative of our holy church to bless and send her children on the self-same errand. "In every age our holy church her gress of America. Not since the plenary Council her children on the self-same errand. 'In every age our holy church has armed her soldiers, not indeed with might and power, but with the sign of the cross and the gift of faith. To no chosen peoplè has she sent her missionaries, but to every race un-der heaven. She sent them into Rome and Greece in the days of old, when the pride of life was intellect; she sent them into distant Asia, where life was the measure d case and comfort; she sent them into the northern wilds and fastnesses, where life was blood and war. Those herces of God conquered. Of the RomAn Not since the plenary Council of Baltimore has such an ecclesiastical assembly been witnessed in America, and this time the participants were all from the United States and Ca-

Canada sent some of her most dis-tinguished sons to deliberate with their American brethren in the faith on the best means to extend the bin the best means to extend the kingdom of Christ in the Western hemisphere, while the Papal Able-gate, Most Rev. Diomede Falconio, attended and delivered a message from the Holy Father himself. All nationalities were represented, and the curit of with the set of the set o The was blood and war. Those herces of God conquered. Of the Ronan they made the saint and strengthen-ed the martyr, of the slothful Asiatic they made the very 'athlete of God,' of your own northern forefathers they made the messengers of grace; who stopped not at the course of rivers nor halted at the mountain ranges, but hastened on to carry the good this first of great joy.

All nationalities were represented, and the spirit of union was appar-ent from the beginning. Of greatest interest to Canadian Catholics were the addresses delivered by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Rev. Dr. McEvay, Archbishop of To-ronto; Rev. Dr. A. E. Burké, presi-dent, Rev. Dr. Kydd, secretary of the Canadian Catholic Extension So-ciety, while the president of the ciety, while the president of the American Missionary Society, Very Rev. Dr. Francis C. Kelly, who de-livered a startling address on Mon-rica, when a series is and missione series is and missione series is and missione series is and missione series and missioner priests and the series of the series and the series of the day, is also a native of Canada. A striking feature of the Congress was the delivery of eighty-six ser-mons along the same lines in as many churches on Sunday, the open-ing day of the Congress, the open-ing session being presided over by His Grace Archbishop Quigley, of, Chicaco

Chicago. While the solemn services of the While the solemn services of the Mass were in progress the nature of the letter which was sent by Pope Plus X, was made known. It was brought by the Apostolic beleate from Washington, and its contents are indicated by the following letter from the legate to Dr. Kelley: "Nov. 18, 1908-To the Very Rev. Franc's Kelley, the First Mis-scionary Coagress of America. nd. the Catholic Church Extension Sowe feel that God has indeed bless-ed the Catholic Church Extension Society for this great undertaking, and we pray that the spirit of love and faith may be carried by the ciety: "By a letter dated Sept. 5, 1908, No. 31,965, His Eminence Cardinal Merry del Val informed me that His Holiness Pope Flus X., has com-missioned me to present un his name to the first American Missionary Congress and to the Catholic Church, Extension Society, his comerchula members of society throughout the length and breadth of the land so that America in its youthlul life and vigor may take up the battle of the cross and win untold thou-sands of souls in Christ Jesus. "Our Holy Father, Pope Pius X., has purposed to himself to restore all thing in Christ has purposed has purposed to insuel to restore all things in Christ, and the Catho-lic Church Extension Socie-ty is nobly assisting him in his chosen work. He there-fore looks upon the first Amèri-can missionary congress with social Extension Society his congratula-Extension Society his congectula-tions, and at the same time to im-part his apostolic benediction to the congress, to the Catholic Church Ex-tension Society, and to all the friends and benefactors of this great can missionary congress with pater-nal love. For this reason, as well as to give you a pledge of his high consideration, he has commissioned me to convey to this missionary con-gress and to the dust

This duty laid upon me by the Sovereign Pontiff is indeed an agree-able one. Since that marvelous day upon which Jesus Christ our Lord bade his disciples go forth unto the Society, his congratulations, and at the same time he has authorized me, as his personal representative, to impart to you his apostolic bene-diction. "May the spirit which energized Peter, the first Vicar of Christ, and which still abides with his successor, Pius, remain with you forever, Yours in Yte.

recently made by Bishop Hendrick of gress and its possibilities, he said: "I think we may naturally expect from such a deliberate assemblage of the head men, lay and clerical, of the Catholic Church in America, a thorough revival of the missionary spirit which so characterizes all the progressive periods of religious his progressive periods of religious history, especially, and, indeed, has had much to do with the material progress and legislative ascendancy of all Christian peoples and na-

"I welcome the movement as an occasion which will properly place before the laymen of America the before the laymen of America the before the laymen of America the duty, which is certainly theirs, of participating much more than has been their wont in all those religious movements for the betterment of the people. Perhaps the laymen of the catholic Church may learn much from the zeal of the laity of other denominations, in so far as mice from the zeal of the laity of other denominations, in so far as miss-sionary activity is concerned ut least, and certainly the time is now ripe and should be rendered memor-able by the mutual apportionment of lay and clerical responsibility in the great field of missionary endeavor whence the Church must necessarily draw her vitality.

"We have many men of means who have not learned well the duty and habit of giving, which is incumbent upon them, and through which alone they can discharge their obli-mitions to conceive alone they can discharge their obli-gations to conscience, Church and country, and I believe that if this convention does nothing more than arouse this comparative numerous class to their responsibilities great results must accrue to innumerable good causes. "While conditions are satisfactory in Quebec and Ontario, the Nerth-

Contrictal vespers and benediction: were celebrated at the Holy Name Cathedral by Mgr. Falconio, who imparted the apostolic benediction. The sermon was preached by Arch-bishop Fergus Patrick McEvay of Toronto. Mgr. Falconio was assist-ed by the following: Deacons of Honor-Vory Port A

Deacons of Honor-Very Rev. A. Deacons of Honor-Very Rev. A. Burke, D.D., LL.D., president of the Catholic Church Extension So-ciety of Canada; Rev. F. Kidd, sccretary of the Archdiocese of To-ronto-

ronto Assistant Priest-Rev. M. J. Fitz-

Simmons, rector. Deacon-Rev. Francis O'Brien. Subdeacon-Rev. Francis O'Brien. Subdeacon-Rev. A. Wol Chanters in Copè-Rev. A. Wol garten, D.D., Rev. E. Hoban, D.D.

ARCHBISHOP QUIGLEY TELLS OBJECT.

Archbishop Quigley issued a statement outlining the purpose of congress, which, in part, was follows follows: "The Holy Father has taken the Church in America from its position of dependency and given it its full canonical rights. In doing this, he recognizes the fact that it is fully able to take care of its own inter-ests and to aid in the work of the church at large. We must, hence-forth, study our own problems, and the work of the forthcoming: con-gress will be to weigh those prob-lems intelligently, and to devise ways and means whereby they can be solved. "We have a vast army of black be so. "We have a vast army of black The congress, which was the first gathering of American prelates under the sospels must be preached. We have the remnant of the aborigines and amongst them the work of evangeli-zation must not lag. We have the yearly army of Catholic immigrants yearly army of Catholic immigrants creating new problems and new re-We have our sponsibilities ow

Monday last was one of the most remarkable days in the history of the Pontificate of Pope Pius X. Not since the coronation of His Holiness has such a brilliant assemblage been witnessed in Rome, and throughout the world Catholics rejoiced at the celebration of the golden jubilee of Guiseppe Sarto, the peasant of the Venetian province, who has been call-ed to occupy the most glorious throne in the world ed to occupy the throne in the world.

Vast preparations had been made in Rome for the celebration. From most of the countries of Europe spe-cial embassies had been sent to take part in the brilliant celebration, and in Rome for the celebration. From most of the countries of Europe spe-cal embassies had been sent to take part in the brilliant celebration, and royal personages composed some of these embassies. Canada, and specially the arch-diocese of Montreal, took its part in the celebration, both at the cen-tre of Christendom and at herne, this Grace Archibishop Bruchesi, who is in Rome for the celebration, had given special orders to his coadjutor to have the celebration of the Pope's jubilee observed with special ceres good causes. While conditions are satisfactory in Quebec and Ontario, the North-western part of Canada presents many difficulties. In that territory, which contains a million Catholics, it will be necessary to begin an ener-getic campaign. We are trying to do in Canada what you have done in the United States, and we are so hopeful of success." In concluding his address he ap-pealed to all to join him in a sol-em declaration of their undying at-tachment to the old faith. Pontifical vespers and benediction. The sermon was preached by Arch-bishop Fergus Patrick McEvay of Toronto. Mgr. Falconio was assist-ed by the following: Declared the following: Declared the following: The sermon was preached by Arch-bishop Fergus Patrick McEvay of Doronto. Mgr. Falconio was assist-ed by the following: Declared the following: The sermon was preached by Arch-bishop Fergus Patrick McEvay of Doronto. Mgr. Falconio was assist-ed by the following: The sermon was preached by Arch-bishop fergus Patrick McEvay of Doronto. Mgr. Falconio was assist-ed by the following: The sermon was preached by Arch-bishop fergus Patrick McEvay of Doronto. Mgr. Falconio was assist-ed by the following: The sermon was preached by Arch-bishop fergus Patrick McEvay of Doronto. Mgr. Falconio was assist-ed by the following: The sermon was preached by Arch-the source the matrix the the partick McEvay of Doronto Mgr. Falconio was assist-ed by the following: The sermon was preached by Arch-the source the matrix the should manufest to-the source the should manufest to-the source the source the source the source the should manufest to-the source the source Pend aroua by one of the hoys on behalf of all present. Benediction of the Blessed Sacra-ment was celebrated by Rev. Fa-ther McShane, who was attended by Rev. Fathers O'Reilly and Killoran, as deacon and sub-deacon, while Rev. Father Elliott led the singing by the concretion Rev. Father by the congregation. Rev. Father Singleton acted as Master of Ceremonies. Besides the school children who the came under the direction of the Christian Brothers and the Sisters of the Congregation and the Greev Nuns there were present hundreds of chil-dren too young to attend school, among them being many children in arms who had been brought to re-ceive the benefits of the Papal bene-diction diction diction. can It was at Rome, however, the cen-tre of the Christian world, that the great celebration of the day took the place. His Holiness celebrated high have Mass in the great Basilica of St. and Peter's, which was crowded with geli-geli-con correct the place. Peter's, which was crowded with over seventy thousand people. Following out the democratic ideas of the Holy Father, tribunes had been erected only for his sisters, the members of the royal families, the diplomatic corps and special missions sent by the heads of state. The rest of the people were admitted by ticket or the people were admitted by ticket. Among the members of the royal families in the tribunes set aside for their use were Grand Duke Alexander and Grand Duchess Xenia of Russia and Princess Mathilde of Saxony. The special envoys, all clad in bril-liant uniforms, included Prince Ho-henlohe Bartenstein, representing Ba-varia: Prince Schwarzberg, repre-senting Austria-Hungary: Baron Schorlemer, representing Germany, and Duke Bella Conquista, the Spa-nish emissary. England, France and the United States were the only ticket. nish emissary. England, France and the United States were the only great countries not officially repre-sented. sang the Vatitan edition of the Gregorian Mass.

At 1.30 p.m. Archbishop Quigley was the host of the visiting prelates and their Chicage notsta a luncheon served in the hall of the sate is ionary spirit which reaches out to the ends of the earth.
CANADIAN CHHEF JUSTTOE SPEAKER.
Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, was the chief speaker at the banquet on Sunday evening. His indicative, and this initiative, the energy, and we be three to good accounting the mission of Heilopolis, of New-Pitchension." "There has been a new religious awakening in answer to an appeal by the voice of God himself," he sat.," "We have each one of the sate," "We deem it an isonor to have had the ingrame by the voice of God himself," he sat.," "We have each one of the sate." The sate specific deference has been made. This origness will at least be a beginning, and beginnings are always important. The cause is certainly a

John Farrelly, spiritual director of the American College; the Rev. Geo. W. Mundelein, chancellor of the dio-cese of Brooklyn, as well as a number of American students and a large contingent of American visitors inside The basilica was radiant inside with thousands of electric lights and with thousands of electric lights and candles. The papal procession brought together a large variety of rich court costumes. Above the heads of the high church dignitaries rose the papal chair, upon which the Pontiff, dressed almost entirely in white was seated. The chair was to have the celebration of the Pope's jubilee observed with special cere-monies in the diocese of Montral. Thus it was that on Monday last solemn high masses were celebrated in all the churches of the city and surrounding diocese. The Blessed Sacranent was exposed throughout the day, and in the evening solemn Benediction was held, follgwed by the singing of the Te Deum. In the Cathedral, in Notre Pame, and in all the parest churches, the sacred temples had been specially de-corated and ill uninated for the cer-

PRICE, FIVE CENTS

and representatives of the Church were present from all the corners of the earth, bearing rich gitts to the Supreme Pontiff, as well as the bomage of his loving subjects from all lands. Among the bands of pilgrims ga-thered for the occasion, the most re-markable were those from France, Spain, and the Argentina. The last was headed by Mgr. Espinosa. Arch-bishop of Buenos Ayres, who has presented to the Pontiff $20,000 in gold pieces in a beautifully decorated and the first communicants, was held, after which a seriion from the text, "Suffer little children to come unto me," was delivered by Rev. Father P. J. Brady, the Paulist inis-sionary, who is preaching a retreat to the young ladies of the parish. The preacher, after dweling upon the love of Christ for the little ones, referred to the attachment which the young Catholies should manifest to wards our Lord and towards fills Vicar 62 eerth, Hie Holiness Pope Pins Xs. The missionary them % im-parted the papal benediction, which bore with it a plenary adulgence. A large number of the children par-sent were enrolled by Father Means in the League of the Sacred Heart, after which an act of com-sceration to the Sacred Heart, was read aloud by one of the boys on behalf of all present. Benediction of the Blessed Sacre-meat was celebrated by Rev. Ta-meat gold pieces in a beautifully decorated pectoral close six inches long and so arranged as to symbolize both the Golden Jubilee of the Pope and the Diamond Jubilee of the Emperor. Around the gross runs a triple bor-der of diamonds and one of rubies. The fifty large rubies symbolize the fifty varse of Pine's prisethood and fifty years of Fus's priesthood, and the sixty very large diamonds sym-bolize the years of Francis Joseph's reign. The Latin inscription on the back of the cross runs as follows: "Francis Joseph I., Emperor and King, having completed twelve her

"Francis Joseph I., Emperor and King, having completed twelve lus-tra of his august office, congratu-lates Pius X., Pope, on the com-pletion of ten lustra of his sacred of-fice in the year of jubilee of both, 1908."

Emperor William, being unable to compete with his ally in point value, thought to excell him by sending to Ror a enerial or ing to Rome a special envoy, the re-lection of whom could not help but create a sensation. In fact, it seems strange that the German Kaiser should otherwise choose Herr Schro-lèmer, the founder of the Deutsche National Vereingung, an association strongly hostile to the Catholic Cen-tre as the remember of the tre, as his representative to the Pope. Of course, Pius X. follows the policy of not mixing himself in the international affairs of different countries, but nevertheless a personage who had not been on such terms as Herr Scholemer with the Catho-lic party in Germany would have been more persona grata; but then it would have passed unnoticed. The approach of a consistory has again given rise to the wildest re-ports in connection with the new Cardinals to be created, so it is interesting to know what is being and in Rome on this subject, and what can be expected. The the present there is, only one prelate whose elevation to the purple is inevitable (he is Mgr. An-tonio Mendes Berlow, the Patriarch of Lisbon), as in virtue of the Con-cordat existing between the Holy See and Portugal the Patriarch of Lisbon, once elected, is, ipso facto, considered a cardinal and must be created such in the consistory imme-diately following his nomination as Patriarch. This condition in the Sor onstance, the former Patriarch of Lisbon, Cardinal Neto, having re-signed as Patriarch, but remaining cardinal, gives that country, with a population of 5,000,000 inhebitants, on two sacts in the Sacred College, Letton us suppose that the new Patriarch. age who had not been on such terms as Herr Scholemer with the Catho-

OF olic

000000000

ors' Club

and Common Ste.)

cluding Concerts of e given every Wed-

1900."

than it

the auspices of Irishmen's Li-nefit Society.

n Knights, Di-A. O. H. nes Lynch. AcCready & Co.

who have not yet are heartily invited concluding enter-

EPTIC TABLETS

AND COUCHS idal value of Cresolene of alippery elm and lico-m us, 100 in stamps , Ageute, Montreal 40

Near the city of Vancouver, ruled in the streets and at public gatherby the new Oblate Superior General, is a settlement of the Squamish In-have visited. More than this I will by the new Oblate Superior General, say that there is a striking com-parison between the people of Iredians. The families are well housed and the former warriors and hunters have become industrious, prosperous land and other people in this refarmers. There is a neatly kept spect." The Bishop gave it as his frame church, and on a public square opinion that this condition is to be stands a full-sized crucifix with the attributed to the splendid work of inscription: "Erected as a memorial the Catholic temperance organizaof solemn homage to Jesus Christ, by the Squamish Indians, A.D. tions in Ireland.

The library of the Vatican was commenced 1417 years ago. It con-

France, in a frenzy of zeal, is at tains 40,000 manuscripts, among work patching up a peace that is far more important to her own people which are some by Pliny, St. Thomas, St. Charles Borromeo and than it has been in any time or anybody else. The situation on many Hebrew, Syrian, Arabian and Armenian Bibles.

the Seine is far less satisfactory than it has been in any time 'Consul Henry S. Culver, of Cork, writes that the peat beds of since 70-71. The wretched republic, Ireland may yet become a valuable asthat has gone beyond all despotism in its denial of liberty and law, is set in the country's industrial development other than for fuel, if, as on the edge of a precipice far more is now claimed upon the authority of dangerous than any in the Balkans, an Austrian experimenter, the fibres by the Bosporus or Dardanells. Ripe in despotism to rottenness, the Third Republic has earned the right to terminate its existence amid the leers and executions of Europe. of the remains of the reeds and grasses of which the peat is com-posed can be utilized not only for paper making and carpets, but for weaving the finest fabric as well. The claim is put forth that the fibre And the fighting race does not die out. So says the United States elec-tion returns. An O'Malley in New York, a Burke in North Dakota, a Korbley and a Kelleher in Indiana, a is elastic and durable, and, being a non-conductor of heat, the cloth manufactured from it is as tough as linen and as warm as woolen.

The congress, which was the first gathering of American prelates under the new regime of canon law, taking America out of the list of Catholic missionary countries, was opened with impressive ceremonies in all Ca-tholic churches of Chicago on Sun-day last. The Holy Name Cathe-dral was the centre of attraction, and was the scene of the most ela-borate and solemn services ever held in the history of the Catholic arch-diocese of Chicago. The programme was opened at 10.30 a.m. with a procession of pre-lates and clergy from the Cathedral College, at Cass and Superior streets to the cathedral. The prelates were escorted by 500 members of fourth degree Knights of Columbus, in sword and baldrie, from every coun-cil in Illinois. The principal service of the day was solemn pontifical high Mass at 11 a.m. the celebrant being. Kor

D. FALCONIO, "Archbishop of Larissa, Apostolic

to the Church Extens

gress and

May the

in Xto.,

Delegate.

The principal service of the day was solemn pontifical high Mass at 11 a.m., the celebrant being Mgr. Falconio. Two hundred male voices sang the Vatican edition of the Gre-gorian Mass. At 1.30 p.m. Archbishop Quigley was the host of the visiting prelates and their Chicage nosts at a lun-cheon served in the hall of the sa-thedral school.

sponsibilities. We have our own neglected brethren living in places where there are no facilities for the practice of their religion and slowly but surely drifting away from the church. Our own country, in fact, offers a great variety of missionary problems. There is certainly no lack of work to be done. What we lack most, just at present, is intelligent organized effort and that living practical interest amongst our peo-ple taken as a whole, which inakes for success in undertakings of this kind.

kind. "The Church Extension Society de-votes its attention primarily to the neglected Catholics of our land. It aims to supply churches and priests to those who need them; it aims to stop the leakage which we have been powerless to prevent in the nest; it

(Continued on Page 42) incom