

IS THERE NOT A CAUSE? (Concluded.)

But the plan we have outlined could not, I presume, be adopted before the next General Conference. Indeed it is a question whether we can ever succeed in getting consent to it.

There is an indirect way. The peculiar hardship in the Lower Provinces is that more than half our men are on missions.

As to the first—development of the Contingent Fund seems preferable to the organization of a new fund.

One of the heaviest drawbacks to many missions is that, excepting that item the grant to quite a number is less than $100 to others it is less than $150.

Let us get an approximate idea of the amount required. Bro. Mart's pamphlet on the Children's Fund is convenient for reference.

cuts in 1882-3 was $3,169.31, of which $2,370, was Children's Fund tax. This tax, under the present constitution of the Fund, would not be over $1,200.

SHEET HARBOR A few words respecting our work at Sheet Harbor may be of some interest to the reader of the Wesleyan.

addresses delivered by these brethren were well appreciated by the people, and were wanted to create in the hearts of all a warmer sympathy for the Master's work.

After we were through with our missionary meetings, with the help of the brethren, Rogers and Nightingale, we commenced some special services at Sheet Harbor.

A. DANIEL, Sir Moses Montefiore.

Sir Moses Montefiore, whose name is being mentioned in philanthropic circles the world over, was born of Jewish parents. The Montefiore family are of Italian descent, and came to England during the reign of Cromwell.

CHOLERA PATIENTS.

Cases of cholera patients who, having reached the algid stage, have been given over as dead while perfectly capable of recovery, have (the Lancet says), not been infrequent in the last visitation in Italy.

BREVITIES.

One weeps for the death of children; but perhaps the change of them into cautious men and worldly women is a sadder thing to see, after all.

No man has a prosperity so firm but two or three words can dishearten it. There is no calamity which right words will not begin to redress.—Emerson.

No man or woman of the humblest sort can really be strong, gentle, pure and good, without the world being better for it, without somebody being helped and comforted by the very existence of that goodness.

The Omaha Daily Bee bewails the ephemeral nature of fame. "Since the June Convention," it says, "not one diagram of President Arthur's pantaloons has appeared in the fashion papers."

What is called ill-nature and want of generosity, is very often nothing more than a quick eye for the injustice and unreasonableness of others, and a determination not to gratify it; not the desire to save one's own money or trouble.

"Why," asked a teacher, "do they decorate the graves of soldiers and not yours and mine?" The child thought for a moment or two, and then said: "Please, ma'am, I think it's because they are dead and we ain't." The proposition was unanswerable.

Sheridan had a very convenient formula for acknowledging all the new publications that were sent to him: "Dear Sir, I have received your exquisite work, and I have no doubt I shall be highly delighted after I have read it."

It is the man who emphasizes "it," not he who emphasizes "I," who is of the highest value. Every employer knows how to prize a conscientious subordinate who makes the employer's interest his own; and society will be dull indeed if it does not prize its conscientious servants, who in every walk of life make its best welfare and happiness their first and main concern.

USEFUL HINTS.

Remember that good fences make orderly stock.

Rats and mice gather in the full barns, and are very destructive. The best remedy is cats. Keep them there also.

A dairyman is quoted as saying that a cow should be rejected a tumblerful of whose milk will not yield three-fourths of an inch of cream.

Franklin, who made a "morality" of every sentiment, in one of his essays, says, "Disorder breakfast with Plenty, dine with Poverty, sup with Misery, and sleeps with Death."

The tree that bears poor fruit, if healthy and thrifty, should not be cut down. The skill of the grafter can make it produce the most delicious fruit; and this a number of years in advance of the young tree just planted out.

For a fruit pudding, take one cup of sugar, two and-a-half of flour, one of raisins, one of currants; a small cup of molasses; spice to taste; one dessert spoonful of baking-powder. Bake three fourths of an hour.

Surgeon Bradley says, in the British Medical Journal, that being tormented by one of the distressing symptoms of hay fever—incessant sneezing—and having tried all remedies suggested, in sheer desperation he plugged his nostrils with raw cotton. The effect was instantaneous; sneezing ceased, and after repeatedly testing the remedy, he concludes that it is worth knowing and recommending.—Youth's Companion.

Some one gives this recipe for a pickle to preserve eggs: To four quarts air-slacked lime put two table-spoonfuls of cream tartar, two of salt and four quarts cold water. Put fresh eggs in stone jar, pour this mixture over them. This will keep nine dozen; if fresh when laid down they will keep many months. If water settles away so as to leave upper layer uncovered, add more water. Cover close, keep in a cool place.

A lady had been suffering two weeks with a felon on the end of her little finger. I saturated a bit of grated wild turnip (probably the wild turnip of the woods), the size of a bean with spirits of turpentine, and applied it to the affected part. It relieved the pain at once. In twelve hours there was a hole to the bone, and the felon was destroyed. I removed the turnip, dressed the wound with a healing salve, and the finger is now well.—Mrs. Parsons, in Rural New Yorker.

Is Advice Cheap?

We think not, for if disinterested it has like every good thing been dearly purchased. A fool may offer, but it requires a wise man to profit by it, and you may reader may offer or accept a little practical advice. Use or tell your friends to use only Putnam's Corn Extractor, for thousands have testified after a practical test, that it is the only safe and harmless remedy for corns in the world. Sold everywhere by druggists and dealers in medicine, all over the country. Beware of substitutes.

For Deep Seated Colds and Coughs, Allen's Lung Balm cures when all other remedies fail.

The Indian farmers on Pyramid Lake, Nevada, thrash their wheat by hand and winnow it in baskets, just as the Egyptians did 3,000 years ago.

DANGER.—If you have diarrhoea or dysentery check it at once. Use Minard's Lintiment freely on the bowels, spread on brown paper and take it in tranquilly according to directions. It will cure the worst case in a few hours.

New York intelligence officers are overrun with well-dressed women who want to be governesses or ladies' companions.

We are anxious for all to know the value of Minard's Lintiment. If there is any person in the Dominion or United States that does not know of it, please write to W. J. Nelson & Co., Bridgewater, N. S., and they will forward a pamphlet that will inform you of a remedy of more value than gold or diamonds.

It is no wonder that so many people sink into untimely graves when we consider how they neglect their health. They have a disordered Liver, deranged Bowels, Constipation, Piles or diseased Kidneys, but they let it go and think they will get over it.

To MATCH THAT BONNET? Feathers, ribbons, velvet can all be colored to match that new hat by using the Diamond Dyes. 10c. for any color at the druggists. Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt.

A cough or cold taken between now and Christmas frequently lasts an entire winter. This is certainly the case with the people who have weak lungs. The most convenient, reliable and inexpensive remedy is Johnson's Anodyne Lintiment. It is to be used internally.

Last winter we warned our readers against buying the large packs of worthless horse and cattle powders, and as it is now time to begin to use them, we again urge them to throw away their money. Sheridan's Powders are strictly pure, but we know of no others that are.

SERIOUSLY ILL. A person suffering with pain and heat over the small of the back, with a weak, weary feeling, and frequent headaches, is seriously ill and should look out for kidney disease. Burdock Blood Bitters regulate the kidneys, blood and liver, as well as the stomach and bowels.

A WISE CONCLUSION. If you have vainly tried many remedies for rheumatism, it will be a wise conclusion to try Hagyard's Yellow Oil. It cures all painful diseases when other medicines fail.

A GREAT MISTAKE. It is a great mistake to suppose that dyspepsia can't be cured, but must be endured, and life made gloomy and miserable thereby. Alexander Burns, of Cobourg, was cured after suffering fifteen years. Burdock Blood Bitters cured him.

BY THE USE OF HANINGTON'S QUININE Wine and Iron, and Tonic Diner Pills the blood is purified, and a healthy skin is the result. Beware of imitations. See that you get "Hanington's," the original and genuine. For sale by all druggists and general dealers in Canada.

NO LADY who delights in flowers, and likes to see them do well and bloom abundantly, should be without Hanington's Food for Flowers. Ordinary packages 30c. sufficient for twenty plants for one year.

RHEUMATISM is a constitutional disease and must be treated through the blood to entirely remove it from the system. It is an exceedingly painful disease, but not dangerous, excepting when it attacks the heart, when it usually proves fatal. SCIATICA cures it permanently by neutralizing the RHEUMATIC POISON in the blood.

COTONS AND COLDS that we so frequently neglect and which so often prove the seeds sown for a harvest of Consumption, should have immediate and thorough treatment. A teaspoonful of PHOSPHORIZED EMULSION taken whenever the cough is troublesome, will relieve the patient, and preserved in cases, effect a cure in the most obstinate cases. Always ask for PHOSPHORIZED Emulsion, and be sure you get it.

If you want knowledge you must toil for it; if you want food you must work for it; if you want pleasure you must earn it.—but if you want nice soft hands you have only to use Estey's Fragrant Philodermia.

Do not feel languid and dull, and have no appetite, then your system is out of order and requires a good bracing medicine. Take a few bottles of Estey's Iron and Quinine Tonic.

ESTEY'S Fragrant Philodermia is the only reliable and thoroughly harmless preparation in the market for the skin. For general use it is simply invaluable and far superior to Glycerine or any greasy compound. It is much better than Violet Powder for Chafing in Infants.

TRIED.—How often we hear one say, "I feel so tired and languid and yet have done nothing to cause such a feeling." The trouble is that their system is out of order and require a good bracing Blood Stimulant. To such we would recommend Estey's Iron and Quinine Tonic. All Druggists sell it.
