

Livestock and Feed

REPORTS come from Saskatchewan and Alberta of cases where there is not sufficient feed for the livestock in the vicinity. The Dominion Department of Agriculture, the Provincial Departments, and the railway companies are co-operating to move the cattle to districts where there is sufficient feed and to have all possible hay cut for feeding the cattle during the winter. In some cases the cattle are being sold, and in other cases they are simply being pastured out to be returned again. In order to assist this situation, The Guide will publish, without charge, announcements of those who have cattle which they are not able to feed and would like to sell or pasture them. Advertisements of those who have plenty of feed and could handle more cattle will be published without charge also. This offer will remain open for the next few weeks, and announcements should be sent in freely.—The Grain Growers' Guide.

at Regina, although some of the individual exhibits were of superior merit. Last year, the Percheron exhibit at Regina was of a high order, probably the best ever seen in Western Canada, and it is rather difficult to account for the lack of interest in this fine draft breed's exhibit this year. Lane & Co., of Calgary, had a nice lot entered, but were not forward; while feed and help problems doubtless accounted for the absence of other exhibitors. Dr. Head, Regina; Hammill & Hunter, Regina; Vanstone & Rogers, North Battleford; J. Greaves, Brownlee & Co., Regina; E. H. Parke & Sons, Williams, Regina; W. S. Shore, Cupar and Blanchard, Regina, were the principal exhibitors.

The aged stallions were a good class. Head went easily to the top with "Hus B," an all-round excellent horse, strong in back and stifles, with a good front and closely coupled, second to Booth, on "Kotmas," a flashy grey, third to Vanstone & Rogers' "Annie," a thicker horse, with a lot of good things about him, although the judge faulted him on type; fourth to Greaves; and fifth to Blanchard.

In three-year-olds, the red ribbon again went to Head on "Black Espoir," a dressy, shapely colt, with a full mane and the breed characteristics, for which Percheron men are looking. second and third went to Hammill & Hunter on "Wilson" and "Allimpoore," a black and a grey, both with good joints, and well topped, a pair of very serviceable sires.

In the two-year-olds this same firm were first and third, with "Frank" and "Savary," and fourth with "Cherlette." This trio is all much of the same type, they all possess good sloping shoulders with level backs, and are fairly true in movement. Head was second with "Midas 3rd," an attractive colt with clean hard underpinning. Booth was first in yearlings, with a strong-boned colt, and he was also at the top with "Kotmas" in the amateur class, and second with the above yearling "Vimy's Choice."

Females were few in numbers, Parke Williams was first in the dry mare class, with his wide-fronted, big, sweet mare "Nell." Head was second, with "Blue," a flinty-legged, good going female, and Ross Williams third with "Esther," a clean-bodied mare with a long, flashy stride. Three-year-olds brought out only Petersmeyer's "Prudente," a mare worthy of strong competition. In two-year-olds, Head was first with "Hessie," a very sweet female with lots of breed character. Ross Williams was second with "Oaklands Jewel," another good one.

The foal class and amateurs prize went to Booth. Head won open and grand stallion championship with "Hus B," and Parke Williams secured the same honors in the females with "Nell." He also secured the Canadian-bred female championship with "Esther," while Hammill & Hunter secured the Canadian-bred stallion championship with "Wilson," Booth being reserve with "Vimy's Choice." Booth also won the class for mare and two of her progeny, the special for brood mare with foal at side and the special for the best two animals either sex. Dr. Head and Parke Williams won the other specials.

BELGIANS

Exhibitors of the Belgian horse at Regina were not numerous. Dr. Head, Regina; Vanstone & Rogers, North Battleford; Geo. Rupp, Lampman; and A. A. Downey, Govan, being the only exhibitors. Vanstone & Rogers won the aged class with the big, well muscled "Lucky D." Dr.

Head was first in three-year-olds with one of the best Belgian colts in Canada at the present time. He is the roan "Fox de Roosheke," whose sire is the well-known stallion winner "Paul de Roosheke," now in Alberta. The Head colt has as good legs as one would wish to see. He has size, is shapely, and well proportioned, and shows himself in perfect. Vanstone & Rogers had a most creditable entry second in "Dandy Downey" was first in two-year-olds, with "Haffas," a nice even colt, not of a great size, but a very flashy mover. Rupp's "Golden," which was second, has lots of size, but he did not move well. Rupp was first in yearlings and Geo. Chamber, Regina, second. The Chambers colt appeared to be going lame, but both were good patterns of the breed.

In dry mares there was a good line-up of seven. Downey was first with a nice clean mare "Lillian Louvain," a very refined looking chestnut, not in great show but good enough to win at the international. He was also third and fifth with "Mina de Marck" and "Sarah de Roosheke," the first named full of quality, but lacking a little in size. Rupp was second, fourth and sixth with "Henriette," "Bona-also the ribbon for the three horses, to get of one pure-bred sire. Rupp came second in the latter class. Dr. Head was the open and grand stallion champion with "Fox de Roosheke," and Downey in female championship and reserve with "Lillian Louvain" and "Nell" etc.

"Iwana Royal 28th," sire "Iwana's Champion," champion Berkshire boar and champion over all breeds at Regina Summer Fair, 1918. This is the first time that Berkshires have won over land types at Regina. Owned by R. A. Wright, Drinkwater.

SHORTHORNS

The Shorthorn show was a good one. The Barron, Carberry, and Elliott, Gosh, herds met each other here again. To herd from the Wright farms, Drinkwater, came to Regina, and there were 24 entries from Jesse Balkwill, Windford, R. M. Douglass, Tantallon, and Geo. E. Chase, of Hockanville. The judges' decisions by no means met with universal approval, and it might be to the advantage of the directorate of the show to endeavor to secure in future a man as judge who is directly interested in the particular line of cattle on which he is called to award the placings. There was a good turnout of bulls in the aged class. Elliott was first with "Newton Loyalist," Barron second with "Augusta Star," Chase had a good deep-fronted level-topped one third, in "Silver Mint," Balkwill was fourth with "King James," a good type of bull hardly up to the size of those ahead of him, and not quite so good behind the shoulder; Douglass was fifth with "Red New Year," a good entry.

Bull, calved July 1, 1916, to June 1917.—1, Elliott, on "Challenger"; 2, Wright, "Clarence"; 3 and 4, Barron, "Jubilee Star" and "Morning Star." Bred by exhibitor.—1, Elliott, "Challenger"; 2 and 3, Barron, "Jubilee Star" and "Morning Star." Calved July 1, 1917, December 1, 1917.—1, Elliott, "Nette Perfection"; 2, Barron, "Star of Hope"; Elliott, "Newton Crystal"; 4 and 5, Douglass, "Sunrise" and "Spicy Marquis." Calved on or after Jan. 1, 1918.—1, Barron, "Blythe Comet"; 2 and 3, Elliott, "Conqueror's Crown" and "Newton Fair"; 4 and 5, Wright, on "Augusta's Gosh Count" and "Tarty's Red Boy."
