DR. WALKER PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
We regret to announce the sad news of the death of his brother, Dr. Archibald D. Walker, which occurred at Riverside, California, on Sunday last. Archibald Dunn Walker was born at Belleville in March, 1865, the second son of the late Hugh Walker. He graduated in Medicine from Queen's College, Kingston in 1889 and began practice at Shannonville. After a few years' successful practice there he moved to this city but failing health caused him to leave for California in 1895. In 1898 he returned to Belleville but was again compelled to seek a less rigorous climate and in 1902 left again for California, where he had since resided. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, formerly Miss Grace Corder of Northport, two brothers, W. B. and Alex. of this city and a sister, Mrs. J. S. Kerr of Shannonville. Dr. Walker was for one year an alderman for Ketcheson ward. He was a member of Mispah Lodge I.O.O.F. and a Mason. Mrs. Walker is bringing the body home and the funeral will likely be held on Tuesday of next week.

An Oil That is Famous—Through Canada was not the bit of oil of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It is the home of that famous compound. From India, Australia and New Zealand, here its good name was spread to its excellence, for in all these countries it has been used to cure many a case of skin disease, and it is far ahead of all other ointments.

It was with some difficulty that the prongs were drawn back. The wound was dressed and nothing serious is anticipated.

FELL INTO THE DRINK

A report has reached The Ontario office that two of our most successful followers of Frank Walton had the misfortune to upset their boat on Saturday afternoon and lose a lot of fine fish they had captured. There is no suggestion that they had any wet back along. They merely got spilled into the drink—that is all.

Bellevillians Has Had Fine Time With London Old Boys.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Mr. John G. Meagher, Mrs. Meagher and son Allen have been visiting in London for the Old Boys' Reunion and have enjoyed the festivities very much. They were at Port Stanley on Friday at the Irish Benevolent Society picnic, patronized by ten thousand Irishmen. There Mr. Meagher came into the limelight. He was awarded the special prize donated by First Vice President P. H. Bannahan for the oldest visiting old boy on the grounds, and was judged at a baby competition in which there were ten classes, as heaviest baby under one year, boy under one year, handiest mother on the grounds with mother, girl over one year and under two, fattest girl under one year, best blue-eyed baby under one year, girls under one year, boys under one year, boys one to two years and best dark-eyed baby. This latter was no easy competition of which to be a judge, but the London Free Press says: "The baby show, arranged by Chairman Wm. Fulton and his secretary, J. H. Fowler, attracted an unusual number of entries, about 150 youngsters being lined up for the judges. The awards were all quite satisfactory and the prizes pleased." His son Allen upheld the honor of Belleville in the games, winning first prize in the novelty boxing contest for boys.

Gage, Point Anne Hungarian, Found Guilty of Liquor Infraction—Did Not Attend Court.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Joe Gage, the famous Point Anne resident, was taken in police court $500.25 or six months late Monday afternoon for infractions of the Liquor License Act. This was Joe's second offence.

When the premises were searched a week ago Saturday by Inspector Stokes, accompanied by Inspector Arnot and Sgt. Naphin, a large quantity of booze was found. Owing to a loophole in the act, they were unable to arrest Gage at the time, but on Monday next summoned him to court to answer charges of having liquor for sale and of selling intoxicants.

Yesterday Magistrate Masson found Gage guilty of both charges, and fined him $250 and costs on each charge or 6 months in jail on each charge terms to run successively.

Mr. P. E. M. Anderson presented the department and Mr. Cornwell the accused, who has not been seen since the raid.

Gilgooley was not represented by counsel and Magistrate Masson did not take his plea, advising him to see a lawyer.

Patrick talking later to some at the police station said he was acting in self-defence. He declared his arms and shoulders were black and blue as a result of attacks on him with chairs in the hotel by two or three men.

He was not very clear how the trouble occurred. However it was over the war, he thought, some accusing him of being a German, where as he was born near Sunderland, Durham, England of Irish parents in 1878. He expressed sorrow at what had been done but said he had been drunk. He declares that he is accustomed to drinking all kinds of liquors, whisky, brandy and so forth.

At the age of eleven years he left the old country with his parents and went to the United States. There he left his father and mother later at Philadelphia. He has sailed the lakes and recently landed in Toronto and came down to Trenton. He reached Belleville on Sunday thinking he would find work on the street pavement.

He says he has no money and is poor, and unable to pay a lawyer. He declares he will if he gets a chance, enter the army. Liquor is no good, he says now.

The Best Lasts Longest.

War conditions now prevailing, it necessitates a complete change in business of all kinds, and while it lasts, owing to the financial strain that will be on all large shippers and importers to take care of their business, Cash will be the only basis of trade.

Consumers should bear in mind, when giving orders and laying in supplies, the necessity of providing cash for their purchases; more particularly when war prices have not yet been made, so as to enable Shippers and Importers to provide further supplies for distribution, as they can only be procured with cash.
