

DER

omica

th, a spoonbes further. berfectly, it lways light ver a waste ind eggs. always take Powder for It makes and bread.

woods away from a lum baking powder ant the best baking -and it is most

* EEKLY STOCK REVIEW ncluded another quie tock exchange. The agwere about the same as s previous. orted during the week 4.500 .12.000 7.500 9.500 .19,000 .59.500 business on the exchang given:

ASKED 37 $350 00 Coal Co ted. $250 0 7% 24 t Kootenay)... 23

ROSSLAND WEEKLY MINER.

Per Year $2.50.

COLLINS' CASE

Straightforward

Story.

is to Be Held Today.

IN COURT

ROSSLAND, B. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1902

DOMINION

Over.

Discussion.

(Special Correspondence.)

letters that were subsequently intro- a man named Wilfred Graham in the duced by the city attorney. They were, Fish Lake country by one Donald Mchowever, entered as evidence and notes Fail, and that two months later his made of the objections. Some of the paper received a letter from a lady letters were read before the court and in Truro, England, asking for particuproved very interesting. They usually lars as to the accident. As the Miner began in very affectionate terms, such was not in a position to supply the de-as "My dear little Nell," "My only sired information a short paragraph Nell," "My own darling little Nell," was inserted in the paper asking if and wound up with the words, "From any of its readers could supply the par Miss Nellie Lake Tells a your own Wilfred." The correspond- ticulars asked for. A few days later ence was of a very amatory character, Collins called at the Miner office and in which snatches of poetry were inter- asked to be shown the letter. On seejected at intervals that added spice ing it he exclaimed: "This is from and flavor. Im reply to a question Nell." He wished to carry off the let which came up concerning one of the ter, but was told that it was the rul letters, she said that she had every- of the office to retain its corre thing prepared to come out to him in ence. Collins, however, called at the September last, but just as she was office a short time later and secure The Preliminary Hearing about to leave home she received the the letter from the night editor. communication from Donald McFail Probably the most important testistating that Wilfred Graham had been mony adduced during the afternoon was injured in a hunting accident, but that that furnished by the examination of he did not consider the injuries seri- F. W. Bryenton, the groceryman. He ous. Shortly after this she received a testified that he had known Collins for cable message stating that Graham the last two years. He knew that Colwas dead and that a letter would fol- lins received letters from Graham and low. She tried to locate McFail, and had at one time asked where the man The peculiar story of Miss Nellie finally in sheer desperation wrote to Graham was. He was told that he

Lake, the lady who was induced to leave her home in Truro, England, and reply, but got a letter from Graham Collins had sent a copy of the paper PRESS GALLERY, OTTAWA, April journey to Rossland for the purpose of concerning an item which had appear- containing the article on the shooting being joined in wedlock to W. B. B. ed in the Miner asking for information, of Graham to a lady in England, and Collins, a man who already possesses The handwriting she was positive was that Collins had seen the article asking the casu lities is to hand British Col-Collins, a man who already possesses a wife and several children—six, it is said—was told in the local police court yesterday with much detail when the preliminary hearing took place before Udge Boulthee When the present month will said—was told in the local police court yesterday with much detail when the preliminary hearing took place before the said several children—six, it is said—was told in the local police court yesterday with much detail when the preliminary hearing took place before the said several children. Said several children—six, it is said—was told in the local police court yesterday with much detail when the preliminary hearing took place before the said several children. Said several children—six, it is said—was told in the local police court yesterday with much detail when the preliminary hearing took place before the said several children. Said several children—six, it is said—was told in the local police court yesterday with much detail when the preliminary hearing took place before the said several children. Said several children—six, it is said with the said several children—six, it is said several children—six several children—six said several children—six several children—six s yesterday with much detail when the preliminary hearing took place before Judge Boultbee. When the proceedings opened at 10:30 a large number of per-sons were present in court, and later a glimpse of the two principals in the case and hear testimony which it was believed would be extremely intervist-with the word "come." The arrange-to prevent Miss Lake coming out here which greeted his entrance had sub-sided little or no attention was paid to but he was always putting the matter tion that the accused should be comsided little or no attention was paid to him. He did not fill the expectations many had formed concerning him, and did not look like the chief actor in a did not look like the chief actor in a syst the middle age, the killing of a mythical individual named Wilfred Graham, besides the commission of for her at the Bigelow Llouse. Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a best of the commission of the Le<math>Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a best of the commission of the Le<math>Canada a way the the secure as the Bigelow Llouse.Canada a best of the commission of the Canada about Christmas-<math>Canada a way the bours since Easter in longwarm by writing of his continued ill-<math>Canada a best of the camp indicate that theinstructions and went to the rorms en-stand th by calling Miss Lake to the stand. He Graham's mail, and they persuaded course he ought to pursue, and ad-

by calling Miss Lake to the stand. He asked her to tell what she knew of the main and her relations with them until they what they persuaded course he ought to pursue, and ad mitted that they means and her relations with them until they what they heard from Collins. She admitted that they means and her relations with that person up to the date of her is that which has already appeared in the Miner, and went into much detail. She explained the circumstances under which has already appeared in the Miner, and went into much detail. She explained the circumstances under which has already appeared in the Miner was and pathetic way. She said the membership of Collins at Graham came into much detail. She explained that they was as graham came into a difference in the was suspended from members. Here was suspended from members in the was suspended from staham, and admitted that they her room and after ship pending further information. could not be construed as being "Do you know me, Nell." She immestrictly proper. It was through the diately recognized him as the Graham medium of a simple little letter, which she had corresponded with since 1899 she had unfortunately burned with a and as the same man she had known Int quantity of others, that contained a in Truro, England. He asked to be request that she meet him in one of forgiven, and knelt down by her bedthe parks in Truro, and stated that the side. All she could say was to mur-writer had met her several times in mur, "You are said to be Collins, and walks and was extremely desirous of I have always known you as Graham." A SERIOUS HITCH HAS forming her acquaintance. The letter He nodded his head, said that he excited Miss Lake's feelings. She had knew he had wronged her, but asked always lived a quiet, retired life, had her if she could not forgive him. His OCCURRED. had never recived a message of that would have been willing to have acted Land 90 BRITISH REFUSE AN ARMISTIC sort before. She was rather curious on the suggestion he made that she to see the writer of the letter, so they should go to Greenwood and secure a DURING THE PENDING met for the first time one evening in a secluded portion of the city park of on the point of yielding when the police NEGOTIATIONS. Truro. The letter writer introduced arrived. himself as Wilfred Graham and ex-plained his reasons for desiring a Mr. Macdonald. It developed nothing LONDON, April 16 .- The Daily Mail meeting with her. On being asked by of a sensational character. Miss Lake Mr. Abbott if she could identify Gra-admitted that she was rather surprised in its issue of this morning says that it understands that a serious hitch has ham she said that she could, and on to get such letters as resulted in the being asked if he was in the court- first meeting with Graham, whom she room she answered in the affirmative, now knew as Collins, but stated that has decided to refuse a strongly worded request from the Boer leaders at Pre-golations. This alone is not likely to cause the Boers to withdraw from the so all, but to construct the line from the conference, says the Dally Mail, but the frontier that some years ago cost what threatens to stop the negotia-it tons is the fact that the government is was revived next year and passed under protest, and immediately Sen-to clined to withdraw the banishment e clined to withdraw the banishment is the fact that the banishment is was revived next year and passed under protest, and immediately Sen-to Templeman began to ask questions ed. The letter which Lord Dufferin wrote it porclamation. These features are re-garded by the Boers as two cardinal points in the irreducible minimum of terms, which Lord Milner (the British High Commissioner in South Africa, and the senter and in the United States. fron the purposes of a precedent for lines to take British Columbian ores and other was to breat a first chance in the senate, and he oproses of manufac-turing them in the United States. fron the nurposes of an authority went to Pretoria to ascertain, and in tretreturn for which the Boers agree to the Daily Mail, are that Great Britan Their other demands, continues the Daily Mail, are that Great Britan and pointed out Collins as the man she was not in the habit of receiving she had always known as Graham. such letters. She declared that she She was positive in the identification. knew it was rather unusual to meet a then continued her story and told man that way, but that she thought She of several clandestine meetings, all she knew a true man when she saw presumably in the park and never at one. She had never inquired very thorhome. She explained this by saying oughly into Graham's private history; that Graham seemed to have a natural all she knew was that he spoke at one disinclination to see, or meet her time of having been forced into some father. She thought this strange at alliance and that there was no love on with respect to amnesty, and is not in the time, but as he explained that he either side. He always spoke as if he clined to withdraw the banishment was leaving for British Columbia very had been married and as if his wife proclamation. These features are reshortly she passed the matter off and was dead. He never spoke of a wife, garded by the Boers as two cardinal paid no attention to it. She claimed but spoke generally of a "barrier" that points in the irreducible minimum of that she never knew Graham as Col- existed in a general way to their haplins, and that he never mentioned the piness. After leaving he never menname of Collins to her. She declared tioned the barrier, and she was of the went to Pretoria to ascertain, and in that she never knew anything about opinion that it had been removed. It return for which the Boers agree to a man named Donald McFail, except was on this supposition that she dethat she had heard that he was a chum termined to come to Rossland. She of her Wilfred, and that she had re-veived a couple of letters signed by herself to Graham which mentioned Daily Mail, are that Great Britain shall rebuild and restock the farms him, one of which told her of the the "barrier," and also a letter in which take over the legal claims and liabilirounding of Graham in a hunting ac- she said she would come to him at ties of the two republics and g ant cident in the Fish Lake country, and Rossland. Letters were read by Mr. a representative government within the other offering sympathy and telling Macdonald showing that Miss Lake a shorter period than is now contemher of the death of Graham. It was had never been directly ordered to plated. this last which caused her to write to come, but which tended to prove that the Mimer office for further particu- she was anxious to come to Graham, SUDDEN DEATH IN NELSON.

restrictions must be greatly altered. Hon. Mr. Templeman then took up the THE MINES matter and held that as a committee of the cabinet were in conversation with the objectors to the bill it would PARLIAMENT be best not to discuss it, at the same time expressing his own conviction that the charge for water at 25 cents per miner's inch per hour was excessive The matter was brought to a climas when Hon. Mr. Ferguson of Prince Ed-Velvet [Rossland] Mine ward's Island, and who is always con- Output Is Being Steadily vinced that any act of the Liberals must be caused by the personal init-Railway Bill Talked iative of his satanic majesty, denounced the contract for which a copy had just been moved, and which the senate has not even seen yet, as "most dangerous," "most improvident and monstrous," and as "only equaled by that which i

The Treadgold Concessions Came Up for a Long Discussion. And as "only equaled by that which it was proposed to give Messrs. Macken-zie and Mann." Mr. Blair's bill for a railway com-mission will be down this week and the end of the budget debate is ex-Manner.

EX-GOV. MACKINTOSH TALKS.

He Is Interviewed While Sojourning in Montreal.

10.—The deplorable loss of Canadian life at Vikein Hart's miver still contin-The latest issue of the Montreal Herues to occupy the largest share of pub ald received in this city contains an inlic attention. As far as the return of crowded with a throng anxious to get ary, when she received a letter from and, notifing in an accident. Collins, a glimpse of the two principals in the Graham saying that he "would never to the would never the would never the would never to the word "come." The arrange- to prevent Miss Lake coming out here, believed would be extremely interisting, if not amusing. Collins, who was led into court by Sergeant Bradshaw, plainly disappearance, that he could meet here en route. In as wer to a question, she said that she word to come out to Graham, she said that she word to come out to Graham, which greeted his entrance had sub-Whilst the house has been droning says, fast disappearing, and there is Rossland G. W. 200

Graham, besides the commission of gaged for her at the Bigelow House. love, especially when they are of the lively ard British Columbian affairs forgery and a few other crimes. He is a middle-aged man, brown and tan- Graham to put in an appearance, she letter of January 4, upon which the supporters, but that would not lead has now been cleared, and a fresh start Tourist Association. Mining Activity

vs that for a fortnight

OF THE CAMP Increased Each Day.

Seventh Year, Number 25

Manner.

As the regular happenings of the camp have been chronicled by the Miner from day to day, there is little of importance to note at this time concerning the local mines. The output of the Rossland mines is being steadily terview with ex-Governor Mackintosh, increased, and the present month will

15.700 1,350

$3 10% ex-div) 23% 4% SALES.

e, 2000, 2c; Giant, 10,000, e Bear, 2000, 31-2c; Centre 35c; Golden Crown, 1000 Pine, 500, 71-2c: Ramble 87 1-2c. Total 19,000.

emind you that the pain of ses, and sprains, common active out-door life is aching bodies by Perry ciller, as a magnet draws from sand.

HITNEY &CO lining Brokers. operties Bought and Sold. ate regarding all stocks in Columbia and Washington

Write or wire ROSSLAND, B.

OCKS lying Cascade or Bonanza te us for prices. ATTENION GIVEN TO F TOWN BUSINESS. calls bought and sold on stocks. din-Jackson (O imited Liability. INING BROKERS. Established 1895.

ULLIVAN 19 Machinery Co SUCESSORS TO BULLOCK MFG. CO.

amond Drills ck Drills Compressors ists, Etc.

RUFF, Agent OSSLAND, B. C.

lars as to the alleged accident. She while he was trying to dissuade her only did this after vainly trying to from her purpose. He concluded his communicate with either McFail or cross-examination by asking her age, Graham. According to her story, Gra-ham left England on September 15, Willie Boyce, the general delivery boy at the postoffice, was then called 1899, telling her that he was coming to British Columbia. They agreed that He identified Collins as the man who they were to keep up a regular cor- received all the mail addressed to respondence, but the first letter she either Cellins or Wilfred Graham. He received from him was dated Rossland never knew any such man as Graham, and was received in November of the and he was positive that the latter same year-nearly two months later. never called for his mail.

vomiting. Suddenly he rolled over dead. At this point she was shown one of R. A. Laird, a reporter on the Miner Graham's letters, and identified it as staff, was the next witness called by result of acute heart disease. Deceased the writing of her lover. The letter the prosecution. He testified that Col- was a native of France, 60 years of many to support it. The bill asks for a death, but he says that for a fortnight portion of our fair province. Lakes double charter. First, for a line from the market had been prepared for it, and rivers, rippling brooks, snow-clad the velvet mine to Rossland, and scc-one, for a line from the mine to the sion in South African securities, it united States boundary line. The dist-caused no disturbance such as there would unquestionably have been had the public mind not been prepared for the cannot fail to call forth un-stinted admiration from even the most

Bowell, who since he took a tour through the Pacific provinces is al-ways an authority on all things Brit-ish Columbian, whilst the distance be-tween the mine and Rossland may be seven miles, there is no knowing how far the railway would have to be taken to get round Rossland mountain. This opposition brought out the remark from Sir Charles Tupper's lawyer that the line was intended to be a feeder of the Red Mountain system, and would connect with no Canadian line. This, of course, gave the whole proposition value in the course of a year or two. The London financial atmosphere has, of course, gave the whole proposition away. If there is one thing that en-Mr. Mackintosh says, been purified of spring goods. In society and military

all, but to construct the line from the accelerated by the disclosures which C., of Victoria, who is recruiting men on railways, pointed out that it was blaze of publicity, absolutely beyond absurd to charter a line of a mile and reproach, and he knew, moreover, that Victorian Order of Nurses, Ottawa, the British people realized this. Mr. Mackintosh leaves this aftera half with a capital of $375,000 and bonding powers of $30,000 a mile. Finally the consent of the governor-general in main for a few days before going on or the order early in June, and will company our contract of the order early in June, and will company can connect with any American line, and the bill was reported to the house. It has not yet received its third reading.

for a long discussion in the afterno

James Amiot Fell Dead-Heart Dis-

(Special to the Miner.)

NELSON, B. C., April 15 .- This eve-

ing James Amiot was eating supper denly taken ill. He was assisted to the

at the Bartlett hotel when he was sud-

open air and sat down on some lumbe

to the rear of the hotel, and began ease Was Given as Cause.

donald of Victoria made a strong atdispatch dated Pretoria, April 15th, Treadgold syndicate, and confiderily stated that they would prevent the de-velopment of mining claims in the Yukon. Hon. R. W. Scott, secretary of state, did not think the concessions or the charge of 25 cents per miner's during the movements from the Mid-inch per hour for a water supply ex-dleberg line."

A physician said that death was the cessive, and held that the construction of the works would enable many claims Miss Kathleen Dennison is now re- for the dispatch of 20,000 additional the writing of her lover. The letter was introduced as evidence, the coun-sel for the defence objecting. The same objections were made to all the other. an article relative to the shooting of and a son somewhere in California.

their shipping capacity, and the merdangers a bill it is for the members of the Whitaker Wright nausea, and busi-spring goods. In society and military circles, too, there is a marked desire tare being used as cats-paws. This and reckless plunging which damages the Rocky Mountain Rangers (No. cocurred in the peace negotiations in South Africa. The cabinet in council has decided to refuse a strongly worded request from the Boer leaders at Pre-all, but to constitute to constitute to constitute to build to Rossland at the prospects of many promising under-takings. Mr. Mackintosh says he does not think that Lord Dufferin's death was pay the Kootenays a visit in the near future. Miss McLeod is expected to tee of the hospital movement here are accordingly putting forth all efforts to have the necessary information and initial steps for the erection and maintenance of a hospital in Kaslo in eadiness by the time of her arrival.

LATEST FROM LONDON.

ton line last night, having taken 145 which contains the names of a few of Boers, including killed and wounded, the killed and wounded in the engageate points as late as the 8th and 9th of April. Preparations here continue

Have Taken 145 Boers, Including the The Treadgold concessions came up Killed and Wounded. same day when Hon. Mr. Mac-

LONDON, April 15.-The following

KITCHENER'S DISPATCH.