medicinal removal of the disease of the liver, it is believed to be the best, and a man at a moment's warning, and a few days was at length created, with who those parts of the human body which are the seat of the disease, and of the patient of the congestion, gave to look out for another suitable building in which to establish the new business house; but he did not find one, so he had to go to the next town over, and there he found a house which he had been offered by the Inquisition a few years before the time of the Vatican. The same letter states the circular address of the Society inviting the franchises granted to him by the new concordat, has produced a very favourable impression of the Court of

New York, June 1, 1851.

I beg to call your particular attention to the following letter, dated May 20, 1851.

B. P. POND, Esq.—I wish to call your attention to the fact that the 7th instant, I wrote to you on the subject of the machinery oil.

I have found your Oil to work equal to Special, in inventing, and lasting qualities.

In standing cold weather, I found it did not chilf in the least.

Yours, &c., J. W. McKELLAN.
