REMAINS TO
BE MOVEDPioneer's Body to be Sent to JuneauTown on Gastineau Channel Will be Final Resting Place of Its Godfather.

Within a day or two arrangements will be completed for taking up and shipping the remains of the late Joe Juneau from this place, to the town named for him on Gastineau channel, Juneau, Alaska.

Only recently Geo. Butler, for some years a resident of Juneau, received a letter from John Olds, a promient citizen of that place, stating that he was the well known wish of the deceased pioneer to be buried in the place he had named years ago. Although Joe Juneau had prospected the Pacific coast from Peru to Point Barrow and had made many very rich discoveries in his time he died penniless in Dawson two years ago and it is to comply with one of the few desires ever expressed by the old man that his remains will be shipped to Juneau for final interment.

The letter to Butler states that the writer had arranged with the Pacific Coast Steamship Company for free transportation of the remains from Skagway to Juneau. Since receiving the letter Mr. Butler has talked with Agent Frank Mortimer who has agreed to take the remains to Whitehorse on the Casca free of charge and the White Pass Company will not charge to deliver them in Skagway on the same terms, the only expense connected with the transfer being that of the undertaker who will take up the body and prepare it for shipment. No public subscription will be taken, the old acquaintances of the dead pioneer whom everybody liked, preferring to bear the expense and look after the details of the matter without assistance from those who knew not the old man in life.

Charges Revived

Manila, June 22.—The charges that American officers looted public buildings in Manila after the surrender of the city in 1898 have been revived and may possibly lead to a formal investigation. Recently the authorities endeavored to locate certain pictures and art objects belonging to the museum, and the inquiry showed that they had been given a Filipino to take care of after the surrender.
The Filipino officers tried to prove that some American officers received the pictures and it is claimed that a former staff officer abstracted a silver service from the Malacan palace.
The government may ask the war department to investigate the matter.
Governor Taft has returned from Manila. His health is completely restored.

Made Hit

Victoria, B.C., June 22.—Steamer Albatross, which arrived from the west yesterday, brought among her passengers the Pollard Juvenile Opera Company, who made a hit in Seattle last year. They cleaned up $2,000 in a short engagement at Manila, and also did well at Shanghai.
The night stands were played at Tokohama and Kobe en route here.
They commenced their second American tour on Monday, when they began a week's engagement here.

Was no Coward

C. R. Snyder, who is writing a history of Osage county, Kan., in the Burlingame Enterprise, gives a chapter to Senator Preston B. Plumb, in which he recalls that Plumb was accused of cowardice in consequence of his failure to attack Quantrel after the massacre at Lawrence, and quotes Joseph Bratton, one of the Osage pioneers, as saying:

"I fought and licked a man once who said that Plumb was a coward.
I knew that he was no coward from a Burlingame instance with which I was familiar. Along about the spring of 1860, when we were running the hotel, and the stage from Lawrence to Emporia stopped at our place for meals, Preston B. Plumb was on it one night, and during supper heard talk of smallpox having broke out here. A man stopping with I. B.
Titus came down with the disease, and as soon as it was known what it was he was carried off half a mile up on the hill to an empty hut and left there alone to die.

"No one being willing to nurse him, Plumb, hearing of the case, resolved to stop off and go and look after the man, even at the risk of his own life.
He got George Bratton to fix up a basket of toast and eatables, take his light and a roll of blankets and show him to the sick man. Mr. Bratton did so, going near enough to help Plumb all he could. Plumb found out the sick man's condition, and cared for him that night. The next morning, learning that Abel Polley had once had the smallpox, he got him to admit the sick man to his cabin because it was more comfortable.

They two cared for the man the best they knew how until he died.

"When all was over Plumb cleaned up, changed his clothes and continued his journey on to Emporia, only to be taken down with the dreadful disease himself, and to be carried off to one side and undergo the forced absence of friends' care. And at last, when he was over the disease, to be branded with the marks the balance of his life. That was true courage."

Welcomes New King

St. Petersburg, June 18.—An offial note was published in the Gazette today recognizing Peter Karageorge-vitch as king of Serbia and welcoming his accession.

In brief the note declares that it is incumbent upon King Peter to avenge the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga and expresses the conviction that he will know how to severely punish the regicides whose misdeeds should not be visited on the entire Serbian nation or army.

The note adds that it would be dangerous to the tranquility of Servia to leave the crime unpunished.
On this subject the note says:

"The imperial government while hauling the election of the new monarch, scion of a glorious dynasty, and wishing all success, he has so well begun, to the supreme head of the Serbian people, which is allied to Russia by ties of religion, can nevertheless not refrain from expressing the confident hope that King Peter will be able to give evidence of his sense of justice and firmness, of will by adopting measures at the outset to investigate the abominable deed that has been committed and mete out rigorous punishment to those traitorous criminals who have stained themselves with the infamy attaching to regicides.

"Of course the entire Serbian nation or army cannot be held responsible for the crime which revolts public conscience, yet it would be dangerous to Serbia's internal peace not to exact expiation for the revolution carried out with violence by the military. Such neglect would inevitably react in an unfavorable manner on the relations of all the states with Serbia and would create for Serbia serious difficulties at the very commencement of the reign of King Peter.

"Their Russian co-religionists offer to God supplications for the repose of the souls of King Alexander and his consort who have met an untimely end, and they invoke the blessings of the Almighty on King Peter for the welfare and prosperity of the Serbian people."

Advocates Lynching

Wilmington, Del., June 23.—Rev.
Robert A. E. Elwood, pastor of the Olivet Presbyterian church, preached a sensational sermon on the probable lynching of White last evening. He took his text from Corinthians v. 13: "Therefore, put away from among yourselves that wicked person." In referring to a speedy trial of the negro, Rev. Elwood said:

"I call especial attention to that part of the text found in the constitution in which it says 'In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial.'"

"On the day of this terrible crime the officers arrested a man supposed to be guilty. He was taken before a magistrate and held without bail.
Tonight he is in jail with armed guards parading about for his protection, waiting until the middle of September. Is that speedy? Is it even constitutional? Oh, honorable judges, call the court and establish a precedent and the girls of this state, the wives of the homes and the mothers of our firesides and our beloved sisters will not be sorry and neither will you.

"And honorable judges," he continued, "if you do not hear and heed these appeals and that prisoner should be taken out and lynched, then let me say to you with a full realization of the responsibility of my words, even as Nathan said to King David of old, after his soldiers had killed Uriah, 'Thou art the man!' so I would say to you. The responsibility for lynching would be yours, for delaying the execution of the law.

"Should the murderer of Miss Bishop be lynched? Yes, but only under one condition, and that is this:
If his trial shall be delayed until September and then, though he be proven guilty, through some technicality of the law or any undue influence upon either judge or jury, he be not given capital punishment, then the citizens of the state should arise in their might and execute the criminal and thus uphold the majesty of the law."

Give Himself Up

Boston, Mass., June 22.—Without funds and hungry, with no place to sleep, wet and footsore, Dr. Walter M. Price, once a prosperous physician and surgeon of this city, has surrendered to the police. He explained that a warrant had been issued against him more than a year ago on a charge of performing a criminal operation. He was tired of dodging

Died at His Home

New York, June 23.—Louis Ig-wersen, former agent in New York of the German Immigration Society and later of the Atchison, Topeka & Railways, is dead at his home in Yonkers, aged 56 years. He was one of the founders of the Improved Order of Red Men and supreme vice-commander of the order.
